

In Remembrance of Me

If your heart ever aches in memory of me, place your hand there and remember I am free. Free as the dawn breaking open the sky. My life continues in the love you keep, in the light you share, in the quiet moments where you feel me nearby. I am gone from your sight, but in grace and peace, I am free.

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sang a lovely song or sat quietly in a chair, perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words, as any friend could say, perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Perhaps you prepared some tasty food, or brought a dish. Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much... whatever the part.

Forever Remembered, Forever Cherished

THE LIFE REFLECTIONS

Forever in Our Hearts

Eddie B. Barnes III was born September 30, 1993, in Saint Charles, MO to the proud parents of Eddie L. Barnes Jr and Kathy A. Barnes. Eddie was the third oldest of five children. Eddie was preceded in death by his four grandparents Eddie B. Barnes Sr., Lula Mae Barnes, Governor Hughes and Anna Riddlespriger; three uncles – Luther Barnes, John Barnes, and Leonard Riddlespriger III; two aunts – Tina Shoals and Laura Thomas-Henley; one nephew EuDre Broadway.

Eddie accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized at Shalom Church (City of Peace) under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Freddy Clark. Eddie attended school in the Normandy school district where he graduated from Normandy Senior High School in 2012. Eddie spent time working as a chef, where he shared his passion for cooking with others. He had a genuine love for creating meals that brought people together. Beyond the kitchen, Eddie also worked for Republic Waste Company. He approached every task with dedication, strong work ethics, reliability, and pride. Eddie's ability to bring care and commitment always put a smile on his face when he was helping someone else.

Eddie was a man of many talents, but above all, his family was his greatest joy. Eddie and his siblings shared a special bond of laughing over special memories. Eddie was known for his creative spirit in working with his nieces and nephews to bring out their artistic imagination. Special saying to his parents was "I am already knowing", that would always have them break out in a smile. Eddie was known for his generous spirit, infectious smile, sense of humor, and ability to make everyone feel valued. Eddie's life left a lasting impression. Eddie was a man who gave his all in everything he did and whose love for his family shone in every aspect of his life.

To cherish his memories, Eddie leaves his parents, Eddie and Kathy Barnes; siblings Leteia Finley (Jermar), Edwinna Reynolds (Theo), Kevyyon Barnes (Brienne), Katharinn Barnes(Correon); six nephews, Joe Broadway Jr, JoeAte Broadway, Enrique Barnes, Justin Finley, Elijah Reynolds, and Knahmiir Williams; two nieces, Brooklynn Barnes, and Breyyona Barnes; Special friends Erica Betts, and Elizabeth del Carmen; uncles Willie Barnes, Richard Riddlespriger, William Riddlespriger, Kevin Riddlespriger (Michelle), Gary Thomas and Calvin Thomas (Ervine); aunts Clarretha Phillips, Charlisa Barnes, Casandra Hendrix (Aaron), Blondel Rall, and Tanya Hughes-Wilson (Steven). A host of cousins, relatives and many friends.

SIBLINGS TRIBUTE

My brother, my heart will always carry your light. Forever loved, forever missed - love your sister, Edwinna

I just wasn't ready to say goodbye but when I see you in heaven we will have a lot to talk about - love your sister, Teia

No matter where we go, no matter what we do,
You'll always be there for me, and I'll always be there for you
- love your sister, Katharinn

Even though we grew older we never grew apart see you again in due time
- love your brother, Kevyyon

I watched you grow into an awesome young man and was honored to call you my brother. Love you forever!
- love your brother, Jermar

TRIBUTE FROM DAD & MOM

Our beloved son, Eddie, was a bright light in our lives. From the moment he came into this world, he filled our hearts with joy, pride and unconditional love. His kindness, laughter and smile touched everyone he met. Though our hearts are broken, we will carry his memory with us forever, cherishing every moment we shared. Rest peacefully, our dear son; you will always be loved, always remembered and forever in our hearts.

-your parents Eddie and Kathy Barnes
