

In Loving Memory

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want
He makes me to lie down in green
pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.
He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever.

Marvin Elliot Morrison, 86, of Como, Texas, passed away on November 25, 2025. He was born on September 25, 1939, to Ollie Fleetwood Morrison and Vera Estell Brown, both of Comanche County, Texas.

Marvin worked in Dallas, Texas, for the Dallas Plumbing Company, eventually earning his Master Plumbing License. He moved his family to Winnsboro, Texas, in 1969 and opened his own business, Morrison Plumbing Company. Marvin operated his company in Winnsboro for nearly thirty years. During that time, he also built and operated the Hickory Ridge Smoke House for several years.

Marvin met and fell in love with Brenda Joyce Brown in 1960 while living in Dallas. They had three children: David, Tommy, and Lori, before moving to Winnsboro. Marvin and Joyce centered their lives around hard work and home.

Marvin is survived by his wife, Joyce Morrison; children, David and wife Laura, Tommy and wife Cherie, and daughter Lori Hall; grandchildren, Brandon, Chris, Joshua, and Brandi Hillin; and numerous other family members.

Marvin was preceded in death by his parents, Ollie and Vera Morrison; brother, T.W. Morrison; sisters, Bonny Jo Mothershed and Shirley Robinson; son-in-law, Mike Hall; and grandson, David Christopher Morrison.

Marvin, like his father, loved the outdoors and tried to pass on his fishing and hunting skills to his children and friends. His children will always remember him as a great storyteller and a loyal friend.
