Our Appreciation And Gratitude

Our family wishes to express our deep appreciation for the many supporting phone calls, text messages, cards, flowers and prayers during this difficult time. We cherish and love you all deeply! You are our family.

A special thanks to Morris and Louise Cooper, Regina's spiritual mother and father. You were always there with encouraging words. A very special thanks to her sisters-in-law who lovingly offered assistance in every way - Kathy O'Banner and Mary Jean O'Banner. And an additional thank you to special sisters, Lounora Washington and Nikki Williams who went beyond the call of duty to assist her during her sickness.

To Warren Yazoo Mental Health staff and clients: Thank you for the support you all offered to Regina during a most difficult time, she loved you dearly and was grateful to have worked with each and every one of you.

We are grateful to Scott's Funeral Home for their kind, professional, personable assistance which helped us remain calm during this most difficult time.

OBITUARY

Regina O'Banner Sheehi was born on December 14, 1969, in Yazoo City, Mississippi. She is the daughter of Mary Lee O'Banner and was happily married to her husband, J.B. Sheehi, for thirteen years. Regina was the ninth of eleven children, and her siblings will deeply cherish their fond memories of her.

Regina dedicated her life to Jehovah and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on December 6, 1987. She was a spiritual woman and loved being taught by Jehovah and his son, Jesus Christ. She served as a full-time minister from June 2021 through March of 2023. Regina thoroughly enjoyed her ministry and devoted her time to this most important work, even during her sickness.

She was a loving wife and mother, adoring grandmother, and an excellent friend to many. She always wore a beautiful smile that will be cherished and missed by all who knew her. She spent many days and nights talking about experiences, funny memories, and the wonderful hope for the future with her mother.

Regina was preceded in death by her father, Robert Ball; two brothers: Calvin Lorenzo Washington (Ernestine), and William Maxwell Washington; an aunt: Martha Mitchell; an uncle: Willie Washington, Jr.; grandparents: Lovie and Willie Washington, Sr.; her mother-in-law, Rosetta Jones; and many others.

Regina leaves her loving embrace to be cherished by her loving husband, J.B. Sheehi; her loving daughter, Delaina Lorell Johnson-Almore; son-in-law, Casey Almore; her mother, Mary Lee O'Banner; and her grandson, Titus Almore, who is the love of her life. Also, her stepdaughters: Tia Sheehi and Sharrie Sheehi; a step-granddaughter, Alesiyah Sheehi; and her aunts: Lillie Washington, Catherine Washington and Darlene Dungee.

Regina is also survived by her siblings: Lovie Catherine Brooks (Preston), Cornelius Washington (Emma), Anthony Craig, Washington Smith, Cleotha O'Banner, Jr. (Kathy), Donna Michelle Jackson (Countee), Rufus Ayani O'Banner (Mary), Dale Vincent O'Banner (Cassandra), Tammie Felecia Perry (Desmond), Delores Washington (Roosevelt), Mary Smith and Verlene Smith; as well as sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Regina was lovingly referred to as TeeTee by her nieces and nephews; and GiGi by her grandson, Titus. She also leaves to mourn a host of close friends and her spiritual family.
