

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth."

Psalm 121:1-2 KJV

Obituary

Mr. Ronald Eugene Lash was born on January 31, 1946 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to the late Gloria Lash Butler and Estes Eaton. He received his formal education in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System.

Following high school, Ronald held several positions including ones with Parrish Tire and Merita Bakery. He spent the majority of his career as a mechanic with the City of Winston-Salem. Following retirement, after many years of service, he continued working as a custodian at Atkins High School.

Ronald loved going to the Flea Market, interacting with shoppers and vendors and taking home his newest "treasures". He drove on the roadways of the city and navigated them very well, but he especially enjoyed driving to the mountains and being enveloped by the beauty of the surrounding scenery. Anyone who really knew him, observed that he loved people. He was a good friend and looked out for his neighbors.

With his travels concluded and his assignments well done, gently on September 27, 2025, he passed away. He was preceded in death by his parents, daughter, Cornelius Lash Means and sister, Norma Lash.

He is survived by his children: Quandretta Sturdivant, Wayne Ingram and Tonya Lash; a host of grandchildren; devoted cousins: Vanessa Lash (Junior) Scales and Wayne Lash; a host of their cousins; and a special longtime friend, Curtis Roseboro.

The House by the Side of the Road

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
In the place of their self-content;
There are souls like stars, that dwell apart,
in a fellowship firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where highways never ran----
But let me live by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.
