

Finding Peace

*The mountains call me to find peace.
To walk in the valleys, a calming release.*

*Feeling the wind as it rushes around.
To sit near a stream with its quieting sound.*

The mountains call me to find peace.

*Blossoms that grow, their fragrance so sweet.
Feeling the earth beneath my feet.*

*Standing alone, yet fulfilled.
My anxious spirit stilled.*

The mountains call me to find peace.

*The grass in the meadows, a carpet of green.
Trees that surround me, so tall and serene.*

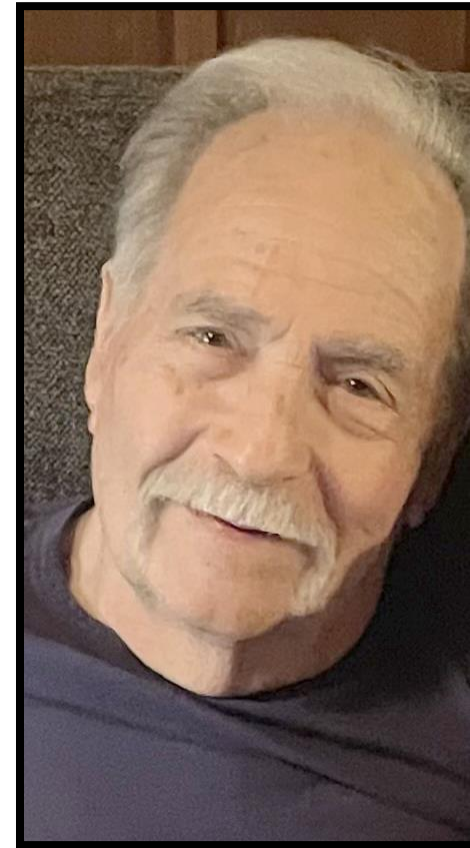

*Now I have time to reflect on the past,
I'm free of my demons at last.*

The mountains call me to find peace.

By Conrad S. Cardinal

In Loving Memory Of

Conrad "Randy" Cardinal

1942 ~ 2026

In Remembrance Of

Conrad “Randy” Cardinal

March 30, 1942

April 28, 2026

Brooklyn, New York

Central, Utah

Funeral Services

Wednesday, May 6, 2026 at 1:00 p.m.

Central LDS Chapel

Central, Utah

Interment

Central City Cemetery, Central, Utah

Dedicatory Prayer Bishop Brandon Lundin

Military Honors
American Legion and
The Utah Honor Guard

Services

Officiating Bishop Brandon Lundin

Opening Hymn #136
“I Know That My Redeemer Lives”

Invocation Rusty Taylor

Eulogy Craig Hayes

Musical Selection..... Glenna de Liste

Speaker Lexie Edmunds

Speaker Open for Remarks

Closing Remarks..... Bishop Brandon Lundin

Closing Hymn #152
“God Be With You Till We Meet Again”

Benediction..... Dayna Lundin