

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,

We talk about you still,

You have never been forgotten,

And you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts

And there you will remain,

To walk and guide us through our lives,

Until we meet again.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern, prayers, and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement. May God Bless and Keep You!

The family would also like to take this time to acknowledge Jessica Smythe for the role she took on caring for her grandmother while she was also preparing to bring in a new life. Thank you for all you did.

Obituary

Kathy Jean Smith was the daughter of the late Rosetta Wilson and Clifford Mobley. She was born on February 26, 1956, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Kathy was preceded in death by her grandmother, Emma Lou; aunts, Katherine Long, Betty Lou Tolbert, and Fannie Thomas; and uncle, Buddy Thomas.

Kathy, also known as "Boo", was educated in the Lincoln Heights School District. She accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Mt. Sinai Baptist Church.

In her earlier years, Kathy was a housekeeper at Vernon Manor Hotel. She also worked as a machine operator at Cincinnati Die Cast.

Kathy shared a special bond with her brother, Neda Byah Smith, whom she lovingly protected throughout their younger years, often stepping in to defend him no matter the circumstance. A strong-willed and outgoing woman, Kathy truly enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Above all, she adored her dogs, Wishbone and Mocha, who brought her great joy and companionship.

Kathy was the cherished mother of four children: Kelvin D. Smith, Korey L. Smith (Tina), Tammie J. Smith, and Ron'Dale G. Smith (Britnee). She was also blessed with 14 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great-grandchild, along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and dear friends who loved her deeply.

On May 14, 2026, Kathy Jean Smith was called home to be with the Lord, leaving behind a legacy of love, strength, resilience, and beautiful memories that will forever live in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.
