

Gone Too Soon

We weren't prepared for you to go
You were too full of life to be Taken away from us so soon
It's still hard to believe

How much we'll miss your smile
And your laughter in our ears
Your absence leaves a hole in us
We're filling with our tears

You taught us how to be our best
To in the moment live
To never hold a grudge for long
And loyal friendship give

Your presence was a light and a joy
We never realized would someday end
Just like the brilliant falling star
That curved 'round heaven's bend
And though we cannot understand
The reasons God took you now
We'll do our best to accept this loss
To carry on somehow...

Focusing on you and your joy in heaven
More than mourning in distress
Smiling through our falling tears
Counting our time with you quite blessed

We will remember you forever
For you, our hearts will always have room
We loved you more than you will ever know
You left us far too soon!

Tristan Allen Barker

Tristan Allen Barker, 18, passed away on June 19, 2026, in Blue Springs, Missouri. He was born on May 1, 2008, in Kansas City, Kansas, the son of Floyd Allen Barker and Cindy Lee (Everett) Barker, who survive in Sedalia, Missouri.

Tristan was a gifted artist with a bright imagination and a creative spirit. He had a kind heart, a sweet personality, and a way of making others feel accepted and cared for. His creativity and problem-solving abilities seemed to know no bounds, and he was always able to see the world in his own unique way.

Tristan enjoyed gaming, especially Minecraft and VR Chat. More than anything, he loved spending time with his family and friends, and the moments they shared with him will be treasured always.

In addition to his parents, Tristan is survived by three brothers, Brendan Barker of Sedalia, Michael Blevins and his wife, Samantha, of Leavenworth, Kansas, and Christian Stover of Killeen, Texas; one sister, Catrina Barker of Sedalia; his maternal grandparents, Tina and Jim Everett of Leavenworth, Kansas; an uncle, Carl Day Jr. of Marshall, Missouri; one niece, Anastasia Blevins; two nephews, Lucas and Asher Blevins; and many other family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

Tristan was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Lowell and Hazel Barker.
