OBITUARY

Wendy Lynn Buonfiglio, age 58 of Plymouth, passed away at home surrounded by family on February 27, 2026 after waging a courageous battle against endometrial cancer.

Wendy is survived by husband David Buonfiglio; son Thomas Skindingsrud; daughter Kathryn Peterson (Nolan); stepchildren Jinny and Christian Buonfiglio; Father Roger Cymbaluk, mom Paula Cymbaluk; brothers Michael Cymbaluk (Holly) & Tate Cymbaluk (Jody). She is also survived by nieces and nephews (McKenzie, Addison, Tyler, Tate, Chase, Cody, Quinn, Grant), aunts, and uncles.

Wendy was a Certified Master Gardener through the University of Minnesota, a masterful home cook, a loving and dedicated para-professional in the Wayzata School District, a travel agent and tour guide. She was active in her church (St. Bart's), and above all else, a devoted and wonderful wife, mother, daughter, sister, and friend who loved fiercely.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to a charity of your choice in Wendy's name.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our family extends our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who joined us today to celebrate Wendy's life. Your presence, prayers, calls, messages, flowers, meals, and countless acts of kindness have meant more to us than we can fully express. The love & support surrounding our family is a true reflection of the love Wendy gave so freely to others.

A special thank you to those who were part of today's service: To all Ministers, Musicians & Parish Volunteers, to Scott Critzer, Bill Wigg, Bill Suter, Liz O'Neill, Tate Cymbaluk, Kym Majka, Christine Goss, and Pallbearers, Tyler, Tate, Chase, Cody, Quinn, Grant. Thank you all for standing with us, celebrating Wendy, and for reminding us that we are surrounded by an incredible community of love.

PRAYER & REMEMBRANCE

PRAYER OF STRENGTH

This prayer gave Wendy peace & strength
Written by Wendy's Nephew; Cody Cymbaluk

God of Mercy and Love, I come before you with a heart that is hurt, afraid, tired and searching for peace. You know what Wendy is facing this moment is not hidden from you. Hold her close when her fear feels heavy. Quiet her anxious thoughts and steady her spirit. Help her trust that she is not alone, not now, not ever. If she's in pain, bring relief. If she has regret, give her forgiveness. If she has sorrow, bring her comfort. Help our family go through this time humble and full of grace.

"In my fathers house are many rooms, I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you myself that where I am you may be also." JOHN 14:2
