

I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS

I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.

So grieve a while for me if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust;
It is only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on - -
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you cannot see me or touch me - I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you will hear,
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I will greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

ARRANGEMENTS BY

Mundwiler Funeral Home - Milbank, South Dakota

Bonnie LaVonne Kunz was born on September 13, 1939, in Heaton, ND, to Charles Kunz Sr. and Anna (Osomon) Kunz. She was baptized and confirmed into the Lutheran faith. One of eight children, she attended school and graduated in 1957. After completing her education, she began her career as a teller at First National Bank, later renamed to Norwest, and finally Wells Fargo. Bonnie dedicated 38 years to banking before retiring in 1996 as a personal banker.

Bonnie raised her children: Dean, Scott, and Michelle, in Fargo, ND. She married Russell Remboldt Sr. on January 2, 1990, in Fargo. While living on the farm with Russ, Bonnie took great joy in caring for the lawn and tending to her flowers. In retirement, Bonnie and Russ enjoyed spending winters in Arizona, as well as camping, golfing, polka dancing, and shuffleboard. Russ passed away in 2008, and Bonnie continued living in Fargo, where she enjoyed volunteering at the local thrift stores and the VFW in Fargo. She was a member of the First Lutheran Church in Fargo.

Bonnie is survived by her children: Dean (Shelley) Smith of Milbank, SD; Scott (Pam) Smith of Summerville, SC; Michelle (Todd) Wirth of Rapid City, SD; Russell (Teresa) Remboldt Jr. of Gackle, ND; and Holly (David) Wald of Edgeley, ND. She is also survived by her two brothers: Charles (Connie) Kunz Jr. and Bob (Judy) Kunz, both of Bullhead City, AZ; along with ten grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Russell Remboldt Sr.; her parents: Charles and Anna Kunz; and five siblings: Alice, Irene, Leona, Lawrence, and Gordon.
