Too Beautiful For Earth

You came like a whisper, soft and sweet,
A tiny heartbeat we longed to meet.
For just a moment, you were here,
A dream fulfilled, a love so dear.

Though time was short, you changed our lives,
In silent ways, your love survives.
No steps to take, no words to say,
Yet you taught us love in your own way.

The stars feel closer since you've gone,
As if your light is shining on.
A guiding glow, so small, so bright,
Forever ours in heaven's light.

God called you home, no more worries or pain,
Your life in heaven has just begun again.
The angels came gently to take you away,
They wiped your tears and carried you that day.

We hold you gently in our hearts,
A place where love never departs.
Too beautiful for earth to keep,
Our precious child, in peaceful sleep.

His-Story

Today we are celebrating the life of Loyal Kylan Yeboah, the beloved son of Datasha Ball and Kofi Yeboah.

Loyal Kylan Yeboah was born on December 11, 2024, at 10:15 PM, and passed away on April 7, 2026 at 7:29 AM.

Though Loyal's time on this earth was brief, he was deeply loved and brought immeasurable joy to those who awaited and cherished him.

Loyal was a super happy child independent, calm, and full of joy. He thought everything was funny and had the biggest smile, even with his six little front teeth. He loved to clap, wobble, hug, kiss, and cuddle.

He loved Paw Patrol, The Bernie Mac Show, Ms. Rachel, chicken nuggets, waffles, toys, his Spider-Man motorcycle, and his dog Rio.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Frank Collins.

Loyal is lovingly remembered by his mother, Datasha Ball, and his father, Kofi Yeboah; his grandparents, Deborah Ball, Damerle Ball Sr., Akua Akyaa, and Sam Ofoso; his aunts, Andrea Childress, Venus Ball, Larell Harris, Jennifer, and Aunt Tiffany Hill; his uncles, Donta Childress, Merrellus Ball, Damilio Ball, and Damerle Ball Jr.; friends of the family, Camille Harris and Yasmine Washington; his great grandmothers, Grace Denson, Doris, and Deborah Collins; along with a host of great aunts, great uncles, loving family and friends.
