JOYACE'S LIFE REFLECTIONS

On March 24, 1952, Ms. Jessie Mae Haymer gave birth to a beautiful little girl in Yazoo County, MS, who she named Joyace Ann Haymer, affectionally known as "Jah Bae." Joyace was the oldest of nine children.

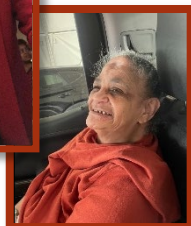

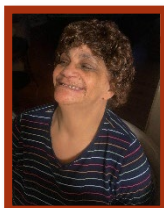

Joyace was an educable individual. She was home trained to domestic duties. As a young lady, she assisted with performing chores around the house. She also played an active role in the childcare of her three youngest siblings: Nettie, Jeff and Ken.

As most families do, they have siblings that don't always agree on everything. For Joyace Ann, she had a way of letting you know how she felt by using a few choice words.

Joyace Ann as she was called by most of us, was a kind, friendly, funny, loving person that greeted everyone with a smile.

The following family members preceded her in death: grandmother: Annie Mae Haymer (known as Mom Mae); brother: Robert Earl Haymer; aunt: Catherine O'Banner; and nephew: Frederick Lee Freeman (Coon).

Joyace leaves to cherish her loving memories to, her mother: Ms. Jessie Mae Haymer; four sisters: Bernice Freeman of Flora, MS; Angela Haymer of Pearl, MS; Alice Haymer of Ridgeland, MS and Nettie Haymer of Ridgeland, MS; three brothers: Samuel Haymer of Jackson, MS, Jeffery Haymer of Pearl, MS, and Benito (Ken) Haymer of Pearl, MS; one former brother-in-law: Jimmy Lee Freeman; two former sisters-in-law: Patricia Brookins of Jackson, MS and Velma Haymer of Chicago, IL; thirteen nieces; 19 nephews; three favorite friends: Shakari Davis, Shantel Wright and Tracey Montgomery; and a host of other relatives and friends.

TRIBUTES

My Sweet Daughter

*I love you more than words can say!
But I'll be able to be strong,
if I continue to pray!
Your heart was so full of joy and love,
I'll see you when I make it,
to heaven up above.*

*Rest my child for now you're at peace.
We shall meet again,
Momma will always love you.
Until next time, my sweet angel,
I know that God Loved you more,
And I will always love you too.
Love Always, Mom*

Sister

*If we could give you one more thing in life.
We would give you the ability to see yourself through our eyes.
Only then would you realize,
How special you were to us.
A sister is God's way of making sure, we never walk alone.
Thank you for being our Big Sister!
With Love - Your Siblings*

Special Friend

*Joyace Ann you were a quiet, easy going, friendly person who showed love to everyone. You had a smile that lights up a room. I will miss your pat on my shoulder as you greeted me whenever I came to visit at your home. Joyace Ann, you are no longer in pain. I pray that you are in a better place. You have many loved ones waiting to welcome you home.
You were sincerely loved and will truly be missed.*

*With Love,
Patricia Haymer Brookins*
