

My Restless Spirit

By Terri Barnes

Please don't be sad for me,
I'm in a better place.
I am watching over you
As tears run down your face.
But now you must let me go
So my spirit can be free.

Please live your life, be happy
That would mean so much to me.
When only God has decided That your time on earth is through
You know I will be waiting,
To spend eternity with you.

"I feel like I'm here to have children and then do all I can to help them return to their Heavenly Father so we can be together forever."
