

In Loving Memory

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Lubrairie Pierre would like to express our deepest gratitude for the many acts of kindness, prayers, visits, calls, and expressions of love shown during our time of loss. Your support has brought comfort and strength to our family.

May God continue to bless each of you.

— The Family

INTERMENT

Sunday, October 5, 2025
Littlefield Cemetery

Lubrairie Pierre

December 13, 1951 — September 27, 2025

Sanders Funeral Home
806 E Market St • Smithfield, NC 27577
Phone: (919) 934-8416

Sunday, October 5, 2025
11:00 am
Sanders Funeral Home Chapel

OBITUARY

Lubraine Pierre, known lovingly as “NaNa” or “Jean,” gained his wings on October 27, 2025, at Johnston Memorial Hospital in Smithfield, North Carolina.

Jean was born on December 13, 1951, in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, where he lived until the age of 29. He later moved to North Carolina and worked in farming for many years.

Those who knew Jean will remember his genuine and loving spirit. He was always ready to help anyone—whether it was a lifelong friend or someone he had just met. With his bright energy and warm smile, he could light up any room.

Jean enjoyed fishing, karate, and soccer. He also loved watching his favorite shows, Family Feud and The Andy Griffith Show.

He leaves behind cherished family and friends who will miss him dearly.

A LIFE WELL LIVED

We thought of you with love today,
but that is nothing new.

We thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too.

Your memory is our keepsake,
with which we'll never part.

God has you in His keeping,
we hold you in our heart.

Your laughter, love, and gentle ways,
will never fade away.

A life so full, a heart so kind,
lives on in us each day.

Rest now in peace and comfort,
your work on earth is done.

Though gone from sight, you're with us still,
our father, brother, friend, and son.

