She then married the late Fred Lee Moorer in 1967. Out of that union of 57 years, two daughters were born Victoria & and Latoya Moorer. Take Me to the King [Tamela Mann]

Somewhere in our hearts beneath our grief and pain,
Is a smile my sister and I wear at the sound of your dear name.
The precious word is 'MOTHER', you were our world you see,
But now our hearts are breaking because you are no longer here with us.
God chose you as His angel to watch us from above,
To guide us and advise us and know that we are still loved.
The day you had to leave us when your life on earth was through,
God had better plans for you, for this, we surely knew.
When my sister and I think of your kind heart and all those loving years, our memories surround us and we can't hold back the tears.
You truly were our best friend, someone we could confide in,
You always had a tender touch and a warm and gentle grin.
We want to thank you Mother for teaching us so well,
AND THOUGH THE TIME HAS COME THAT WE MUST BID YOU THIS FAREWELL

We will remember all you've taught us and make you proud you'll see.
Thank you our Dear Mother for all the love you showed us
Although you've left this earth and now you've taken flight,
We know that you are here with us each morning, noon and night.
We love you Mom!!
Latoya & Victoria
