

Love & Thanksgiving Sunday Brunch Repast immediately after service

Sincere appreciation is extended to everyone who found so many ways to express friendship and love. Your kindness has been a blessing and a source of strength.

Special Thank You

Gail Lewis
Peggy Pelotte
Barbara Grimes
Lynn Howard
Betty Smith
Walker Funeral Home

“I am convinced that the universe is under the control of a loving purpose”

“Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, what are you doing for others”

“I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality”

~~MLK

*Celebrating
The Life Of*

Yoshie Saeki Lewis

September 21, 1945 – May 7, 2019

Obituary

Love is her spirit

Yoshie SaekiLewis, 73, died on Tuesday, May 07, 2019, with her husband by her side at University of Cincinnati Medical Center.

Yoshie was born September 21, 1945 in Hiroshima Japan to Shigeko and Zenzo Saeki. She has a brother, Motonori Saeki.

She devoted much of her time and energy as a caregiver to her husband and to their animals. Her interests included animal welfare and animal rescue, gardening and well spent time with a few great friends.

Yoshie is survived by her husband, Maxwilliam JD SaekiLewis.

Order of Service

Welcome & Poem

Courtis Fuller

Family Friend

Reflections from Family & Friends

Edward Lewis

Brother-in-Law

Dr. Orin Ashley, DVM

Family Friend

Portia Fuller

Family Friend

Fred Shuttlesworth Jr.

Family Friend

Ruby Shuttlesworth Bester

Family Friend

Open Microphone Tributes

Family/Friends

Musical Tribute

Shuttlesworth Family

Video Tribute

Eulogy

Maxwilliam JD SaekiLewis

Husband

Acknowledgements & Closing

