

I MISS YOU MOM

I thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday, and days before that too.
I think of you in silence, I often speak your name.
All I have are memories, and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part.
God has you in his keepings, I have you in my heart.

I NEVER LEFT YOU

I never left your side, my children, I did not go away.
I'm walking right beside you, With every breath you take.
When you cry at night, I am there, Wiping your tears away.
When you are afraid and worried, I help you through the day.
Please try to hold on and live your lives, Enjoy the gifts you're given.
For God has called your mother home, But my love is always living.
So do not mourn in sadness, For we will meet again,
Until that day, my beautiful children, I'll love you to no end.

Obituary

Amanda Lynn Bradshaw, a loving mother, grandmother, and cherished friend, passed away peacefully on May 27, 2026, at Cape Fear Valley Bladen County Hospital in Elizabethtown, North Carolina. Born on February 6, 1970, in Sampson County, Amanda's life was a testament to warmth, dedication, and unwavering love.

She was known for her caring nature, quick wit, and the articulate way she expressed herself. Amanda worked tirelessly throughout her life, always putting the needs of her family first. These qualities endeared her to all who knew her and left an indelible mark on the hearts of her loved ones.

Amanda's joy was found in the simple pleasures of life. She loved music of all kinds, allowing melodies to weave through her days with grace and comfort. The outdoors called to her often, where she embraced nature's beauty with open arms. Most of all, Amanda adored her family and treasured moments spent with her grandchildren, especially their beach trips—a hallmark of her happiest memories.

She is survived by an exceptional family who will carry her spirit forward: her son Daniel Lambert and his wife Ashley Edwards Lambert of Clinton, North Carolina; her daughters Ashley Lambert of Warsaw, Memory Thornton of Dunn, Neilyah Blue, Myranda Blue, and Julia Blue—all of Clinton; her beloved mother, Shirley Cavanaugh; her brother Wesley Bradshaw; and her sisters Sheila, Victoria, and Susan. Amanda's heart lived in her seven grandchildren: Scarlett Lambert, Henry Thornton, Christian Capps, Lance Bradshaw, Seth Bradshaw, Isabella Marie Ramirez, and Haylien Blue, with the anticipation of another grandchild on the way, Aiden Carter, who will know the legacy of love Amanda leaves behind.

Amanda was preceded in death by her father, Roy Bradshaw, and her husband, Cornellius Blue.

Though Amanda has left this world, her nurturing spirit, infectious laughter, and steadfast dedication will forever echo in the lives she touched. She was a beacon of love and resilience whose memory will continue to inspire. Amanda Lynn Bradshaw's story is one of heartfelt devotion and joyous living—a precious gift to all who knew her.

But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and he will stand upon the Earth at last. And after my body has decayed, yet in my body I will see God! I will see him for myself. Yes, I will see him with my own eyes. I am overwhelmed at the thought!
