A Blessed Life Remembered

“For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith.”~ II Timothy 4: 6-7

EARLY LIFE AND BIRTH

On October 4, 1933, the late Isaac Wilson and Viola Miles Wilson welcomed their beautiful daughter, Lue Bertha, into the world. She graced their lives and the lives of many others for 92 years, sharing her warmth, kindness, and faith throughout her journey.

TRANSITION TO ETERNAL REST

On Saturday, March 14, 2026, Lue Bertha departed from her earthly life and entered into the presence of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, leaving behind a legacy of love, devotion, and service.

Lue Bertha was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Joe White, Sr. on June 8, 1952, a union that continued until his passing in October 1986. Their marriage was blessed with nine lovely children.

EDUCATION

Lue Bertha Wilson White received her education in the public schools of Berkeley County. This formative experience provided her with the foundation for her lifelong journey of faith, service, and dedication to her family, church, and community.

SPIRITUAL FOUNDATION AND DEDICATED SERVICE

Mother Bertha received her religious teaching and guidance both at home and at Taveau United Methodist church. Over time, Taveau merged with St. Luke, forming what is now known as Cordesville United Methodist Church. This spiritual upbringing became the cornerstone for her many decades of committed service, during which Mother Bertha expressed her deep and abiding faith through worship of Almighty God and tireless involvement within the church.

Throughout her life, she faithfully gave her time, talent, and service in a variety of roles. Mother Bertha served as secretary of the Usher Board, Head of Health and Welfare, Class Leader, Trustee, and as a member of the Senior Choir. Her dedication extended to sharing the gospel, as she was passionate about evangelism and spreading God's word to others.

A LIFE GUIDED BY FAITH AND LOVE

Mother Bertha's devotion to God and her love for people were evident in everything she did. Motivated by Christ's love, she welcomed everyone she met, never seeing anyone as a stranger. Her warm spirit and kindness made her a blessing to many individuals in her community.

FAMILY AND FRIENDSHIP

As a faithful and loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great great grandmother, aunt, and friend, Mother Bertha will be remembered for her quiet disposition, steadfast love, and loyalty to family and friends. Her dedication and devotion to God and the church, along with her gentle spirit, are hallmarks of her lasting legacy.

DEDICATION TO GOD AND CHURCH

Mother Bertha's dedication and devotion to God and the church were hallmarks of her character. Her gentleness and commitment to her faith defined her legacy and touched the lives of those around her.

A LASTING LEGACY OF LOVE

Mother Bertha leaves behind a profound legacy of love, carried forward by her devoted family and cherished friends. She is survived by her loving children: Gail Pride, Joe White, Jr., Jannette White, Retired SGM Harry James White and his wife Kum, Karl White and his wife Priscilla, Gymnetta Fludd, Billy White, (Jeanette, a special friend) and Tommy White. She is also fondly remembered by her stepdaughter, Barbara Antoine, and stepson, Jerome Fludd.

Her granddaughter, Gretta Garnett, whom she lovingly raised as her own, continues to honor her memory. In addition, fifteen grandchildren, thirty-one great-grandchildren, and seven great-great-grandchildren all stand as a testament to her enduring influence and love.

Mother Bertha's love extended beyond her immediate family. Her godchild, Renee Gibbs; several special nieces and nephews; sisters-in-law, Rosa Lee Wilson, and Mary Wilson; and devoted friends, Mrs. Lillie Mae Jenkins, Mrs. Lillian Borden, Mrs. Onetha Williams, Mrs. Ruby Williams, and Mrs. Alfonso Berry, all hold her dear in their hearts.

She is also remembered by a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives, and her loving church family, each of whom was touched by her gentle spirit and unwavering devotion.

Mother Bertha was preceded in death by her husband Joe White, Sr., grandsons Harry James White, Jr., PFC Anthony White, Lamont White, Stephen White, daughter-in-love Constance White, siblings Mrs. Laura Ferguson, Mrs. Henrietta Sass, Mrs. Gertrude Mae Lloyd, Mr. Isaac Wilson, and Mr. Leroy Wilson.
