

I Made It Home

I just wanted to let you know that
I made it home.
Everything is so pretty here,
So white, so fresh, so new.
I wish that you could close
your eyes so you could see it too.
Please try not to be sad for me.
Try to understand.
God is taking care of me....
I'm in the shelter of His hands.
Here there is no sadness,
and no sorrow, and no pain.
Here there is no crying,
and I'll never hurt again.
Here it is so peaceful,
when all the angels sing.
I really have to go for now...
I've just got to try my wings.

Obituary

Mary Ruth Caldwell was born on December 14, 1944, in Durand, Georgia, to the late Mildred Denson and the late H. Jackson.

On Wednesday, March 18, 2026, she peacefully entered eternal rest.

Mary Ruth was a woman of deep faith who often stood in the gap, praying for others. Her heart was truly golden, and she always desired the best for everyone she encountered. She was a dedicated employee of the Meriwether County Board of Education, where she faithfully served for 31 years. Even after retirement, she continued to work a few hours each day, demonstrating her strong work ethic and commitment.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Eddie Dawson Caldwell; her sisters, Mary Frances Williams, Bernice Wortham, and Sandria L. Williams

Mary Ruth leaves to cherish a loving and devoted sister-in-law, Linda Caldwell; two loving and devoted nieces, whom she raised as her own children, Nyeashia Caldwell and Naquisha Caldwell; two brothers, Richard Williams and Charles Thomas; one sister, Joanne Dixon; two honorary grandchildren, Dionde Williams Jr. and Aubree Caldwell; and a very special great-niece, Kaimarie Turner, whom she cherished deeply. She also leaves behind a special friend, Annie Billingslea, who was like a sister, along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
