Treasy Van BROWN III

Brown's Life Story

Treasy Van Brown III was born on July 4, 1962 in Dendron, Virginia. The 4th child born to Treasy “Junior” Brown and Marjorie Bailey Brown who predeceased him in death.

At the age of 5, Treasy’s family relocated to Newark, New Jersey where Treas, as he was affectionally called, was educated in the Newark school system, graduating from Malcolm X Shabazz in 1980.

Desiring more for his life, Treasy decided to further his education at Stockton University where he received his Bachelor’s Degree and made lifelong friends. Later, he went on to receive his Master of Science Degree from Walden University in 2008.

In addition to having four biological brothers, Treasy gained many more becoming a proud member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Incorporated by way of the Upsilon Alpha Chapter in 1987. To say that Treasy was proud to be a “Que” would be an understatement as he was often heard barking loudly and/or throwing up his hooks.

In 1994, Treasy met the love of his life, Marie Brown, whom he married in 1998 and their union produced their “golden child”, Malcolm. Treasy also extended himself to Marie’s 2 daughters whom he loved as his own.

Treasy possessed a strong work ethic and believed “If a man does not work, he does does eat”! Treasy, however, always sought employment that would allow him to help others and give back to the community that helped to shape and mold him. He held prior employment as a Substance Awareness Counselor for Newark Public School System and at the time of his passing, had been employed as a Resource Teacher at Liberty High School in Jersey City.

Ensuring he incorporated fatherhood in extracurricular activities, Treasy found ways to have fun and make a difference by working for the summer school programs and coaching elementary and high school sports including his son’s Hillside Basketball Team. Continuing to support his alma mater, he regularly attended the yearly Shabazz vs Weequahic game.

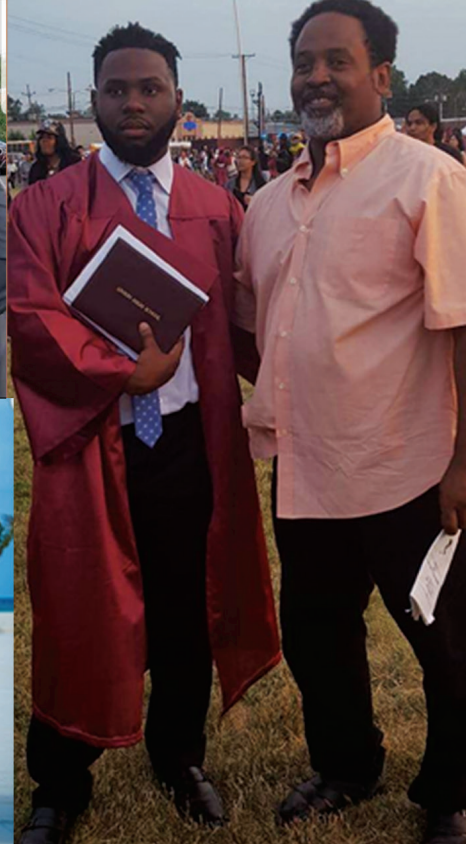

Being family oriented and goal oriented Treasy proudly engaged in family trips, visits to his hometown in Virginia, frequent phone calls to family, hosted dinners, cookouts, get togethers and clearly showed love through action.

Treasy was one of a kind, leaving a lasting imprint on the hearts of those who had the pleasure of engaging with him. Despite his tough exterior, he had a huge soft heart and genuinely desired the best for others. Let us remember him for being reliable, possessing integrity, loyalty, honesty, a family man and let’s not forget his beloved Cowboys! Treasy departed this life on May 26, 2020 as a true warrior who fought the good fight, was battle tested but victorious and now seated with our Heavenly Father.

His legacy of love will be most cherished by: his loving, faithful and committed wife of 21 years, Marie Brown, son “Big Dog” Malcolm, daughters, Keiyona (Shon) Evans ,NJ; Khadijah Henry ,NJ; His grandchildren: Jeremiah, Makaia, Anjanay, and Aria. One sister Pamela Brown, NC; Brothers Reggie Brown NC; Donnell Brown, VA; Carl Brown, NJ; and Terrie Brown, NJ; 2 Brother-in-laws, Richard Brown, NJ; Darryl Brown, TX; a honorary brother, Robert Lockett and a host of many loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great nieces, cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
