Reflections Of Life

Robert Terrell Covington was born the fourth of seven children on May 29, 1975 in Johnston County to Bishop Daniel Covington and First Lady Joyce Covington. He gained his heavenly wings on Thursday, April 17, 2025 at UNC Hospital, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Robert was educated in Franklin county schools. He started his career in law enforcement in Spring Hope, NC and did security work in Wake County, NC. Later he received his CDL license and worked for Argos Ready Mix until he was diagnosed with Interstitial (ILD) lung disease. Robert was a faithful member of Johnson Grove New Birth of Deliverance where he was lead musician. He was kind, soft spoken and reserved in nature but when he played the keyboard, his love for God and the church came through as a sound like none other. Robert used his anointed and God-given gift to be a blessing to many Fellowships over the years including Higher Calling CRC, Nehemiah Building Ministries, Mt. Calvary Holiness Church of Deliverance and Community Outreach Ministries to name a few. With a willing and humble heart, he would travel to play his keyboard wherever he was needed. With his gift making room for him, Robert later joined The Anointed Brothers In Christ to further lift up the name of Jesus. He was a loving son, husband, father, brother, uncle, cousin and friend.

Preceded in death by his mother, Etta Joyce Covington and brother Daniel "Tee Tee" Covington Jr., he leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Crystal Covington (Clayton, NC); two sons, Cameron Covington (Dallas, TX), Dairean Rouse (Cary, NC); four daughters, Christina Mitchell (Holly Springs, NC), Azya Privette (Zebulon, NC), Zaporla Rouse (Raleigh, NC) and Layla Covington (Clayton, NC); his father, Bishop Daniel Covington (Franklinton, NC); five siblings, Anthony Covington (Laurinburg, NC), Roger (Annie) Covington (Youngsville, NC), Foster (Kesha) Covington (Smithfield, NC), Devon (Carlaetha) Covington (Clayton, NC) and Daniell Covington (Raleigh, NC); a host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, three special fellow musicians, Bobby, Sherwood, Jayden and other relatives and friends.
