

Acknowledgment

The family of Joshua Terrill Quarles would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for the thoughtfulness presented to us and love we have been given during our time of bereavement. Thanks Everyone Who Helped With Putting This Memorial Together.
May God bless you!

John 3:16

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

In Our Hearts

23rd Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Life's Reflections

Joshua Terrill Quarles

Dear Family and Friends, We are celebrating the life of Joshua Terrill Quarles (Josh), who was born on August 25, 1994, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Melicent McFadden-Quarles and Michael Quarles Sr.

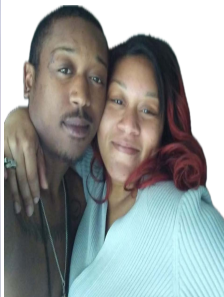

Josh received Christ early in his life and was baptized at the age of eight by Bishop John L. Brown at Newland Mark Church. He was educated in the Grandview School District and graduated from Grandview High School in May 2013.

Known for his hard work at a local recycling company, Josh was beloved by everyone who knew him. He cherished time spent with family and friends and was the heart of every gathering. Whether he was acting as the family BBQ and seafood cook, the DJ, or the fun uncle, son, and brother, his presence brought joy to us all. He was particularly well-known for his generosity and his love for football, especially playing Xbox with his nieces and nephews.

Josh was preceded in death by his great-grandfather, James P. Carmichael; his grandmother, Janet F. Gary; his nephew, Jeremiah D. Jones; and his best friend, Chase Curtis.

He leaves behind a loving family to cherish his memory: his mother, Melicent McFadden-Tate (John); his siblings, Da'sha McFadden (six children), Gwendolyn Quarles (three children), Michael Quarles II (four children), and Maliya McFadden; his stepfather, John Tate; his uncles, Melvin McFadden, Robert W. Quarles, and George K. Quarles (Adrienne); his aunts, Imogene Quarles and Jamesetta Gary; his godmother, Alicia Wilson; and a host of god-brothers, god-sisters, nieces, nephews, and extended family members, including the McDonald and Ltif families.

Josh will be deeply missed until we see you again.
