Obituary

Frances (Oatman) Knight was born in Matthews, GA on June 29, 1931, to the late William Oatman Sr. and the late Avada Oatman. Frances grew up in Augusta, GA before moving to New Jersey with her family. She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her savior at a young age and used her gift of singing from age 6-12 to build many churches in the south.

Frances was educated in the Georgia public school system and lived in Vauxhall, NJ before moving to Iselin, NJ and then Florida until her demise. In 1953, at the age of 22, she married (the late) William Knight Jr, on October 15, 1953, in a small ceremony.

Through her years, she cared for the sick and worked with the church in many different ways.

Frances was a giving and caring person. She was always available for encouragement. She loved music and listening to good preaching of the word of God.

Frances Knight was predeceased by her husband, the late William Knight Jr., by her son, Pierre K. Knight, her brother, Dennis Oatman, and her sisters Virginia Anderson & Lurlien Franklin.

Frances leaves loving memories with her daughters: Burchell Knight, Victoria (Knight) Johnson, and step daughter DeShawne L. Allen-Jordan. One son-n-law: Naeem P. Johnson and step son-n-Law W. Jerome Jordan. Three grand-daughters: Kelly F.S. Smith, Victoria A.M. Smith and Elizabeth V. Johnson. Three grand-sons: Quincy Knight, Courtney Knight and Nathanael D. Johnson. Five great-grandchildren: Maya B. Armstrong, Jacienya X. Armstrong, Karina Knight, Layla Knight, and Eric Knight. One sister, Avada (Dolly) Smith, two brothers, Pastor William (Billy) Oatman & Musa Oatman, and a host of family and friends.

Perhaps
Perhaps you sent a lovely card
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral spray,
If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words

As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day.

Wherever you did
To console our hearts,
We thank you so much,
Whatever the part.

Appreciation

With sincere gratitude and appreciation, The Family of Frances Knight would like to thank each of you for your many acts of kindness and love shown during this time of bereavement. Your act of kindness, cards, phone calls, visits and prayers will forever be embedded in our hearts. It is our prayer that God continue to keep you in his love.
