

Go Home To Heaven

Dear Edith,

Go home to God in Heaven

Who loves you as much as we

Where joy is there to surround you

Where your spirit is finally free

Go home where there is no suffering

To Heaven's rest and its love

Where torment and pain never enter

No sickness or sorrow above

Go home to everlasting comfort

Into God's tender embrace

Where His healing removes all suffering

No more sadness or worries you'll face

Go home and in peace watch over us

Yet forgive us if we still weep

Tearfully trusting your beautiful soul

For the angels in Heaven to keep

Edith (Thigh) Tentinger passed away on August 27, 2023 at the age of 70 after a short battle with cancer, "Edie" was a very unique woman with a fun-loving personality. She was a member of the Rosebud Tribe and grew up in the Lower Brule and Chamberlain area. She came from a large family including many cousins, aunts, uncles and loved ones. She was the daughter of Sam Thigh Sr. and his wife Nellie (Thomas) Thigh. Her siblings included 3 brothers, Russel, Wally, and Sam Jr. and sister, Mercy. Edie had 2 sons, Marvin and Jason Thigh. She eventually married the love of her life, Danny Tentinger.

During her younger years, she traveled across the country, stepping foot in "most" states according to her stories. She told many tales of her adventures and enjoyed entertaining people with her stories.

She settled in Pierre and recently moved to Rapid City, living with her son, Jason Thigh. She enjoyed puzzles, word games, and attended a home Bible Study. She brought joy and entertainment to many who got acquainted with her. She was an "overcomer" in many ways and was baptized as an adult. She professed her faith in the Lord Jesus, her Savior, and now rests in His everlasting loving arms!
