

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Olga Lukashovna Kukharets

Olga Lukashovna Kukharets, 61, of Sedalia, MO, passed away on Saturday, April 5, 2025, at her home. She was born on September 16, 1963 in Byshlak, Ukraine the daughter of Lukash Sad and Olena (Buzyan) Sad, who preceded her in death.

On April 29, 1984 in Ukraine, she was united in marriage to Viktor Kukharets, who resides in the home.

Olga was a loving & doting wife, mother, and grandmother. She always found much joy in seeing her grandchildren whenever she had the chance. She enjoyed cooking, baking, sewing, gardening, shopping, & being outdoors. Olga was always available when others needed help or support. She loved going to church and worshipping God. Her prayers for her children never diminished, even when she was in poor health. She always longed for her family and her home country, Ukraine. Olga was always gracious & her door was always open. She found peace in her garden & flower bed.

In addition to her husband, Olga is survived by seven children, Lyudmila Kukharets of Olathe, KS, Lesya Varnado (Brandon) of Lee's Summit, MO, Petr Kukharets (Christina) of Peosta, IA, Paul Kukharets, of Sedalia, MO, Victoria Kukharets, of Lee's Summit, MO, Anatoly Kukharets of Sedalia, MO, and Karina Kukharets of Sedalia, MO; eight grandchildren, Allie, Arabella, Bradley, Luka, Madelynn, Kobe, Philip, and Evelyn; seven siblings Ivan Sad, Pavel Sad, Sergiy Sad, Katya Manzyk, Vasiliy Sad, Petro Sad, and Oksana Ivanshenko.

In addition to her parents, Olga was preceded in death by a sister, Anna Boyko; and a brother, Victor Sad.
