Edith Grace Bloomfield

November 11, 1955 – July 29, 2024

Edith was born Friday, November 11, 1955, in Moose Lake, to Simon and Gladys Martin.

Edith passed away peacefully Monday, July 29, 2024, at the age of 68 years with her loving family by her side.

Her life time she lived mostly in Moose Lake and attended school in her community, until she had to attend McKay School in Dauphin, Manitoba. After she returned home she became employed at Lamb's Store for many years. She was valued employee to the McAree family.

Edith had a great talent to make people laugh. If you ever felt down and low, she would instantly intervene. For sure she would lift your spirits to the point where you would forget that you had a problem. She was a very, very understanding woman, caring and loving. She always had an ear to lend and listen without interruption or any harsh judgement. Her favourite saying will always be embedded into our hearts and minds, "That don't make me no never mind."

Edith's social life was the best place to be with her. She enjoyed tagging along at weddings, gospel jamborees. She was always good at doubling up on the VLTS's. We can't forget her evening bingos with family and friends. For sure we will all miss her, because if you knew Edith, you would know it was going to be a great day or evening.

Edith was united in marriage to the late Gordon Bloomfield on May 6, 1983. Together they had three girls, Roxanne, Shelby (Ray Constant), Jocelyn (Ernie George) and her first born only son Conrad (Shelly Lavallee).

Edith leaves to mourn her children Roxanne, Shelby (Ray Constant Jr.), Jocelyn (Ernie George) and her first born only son Conrad (Shelly Lavallee); grandchildren Lenaya, Markus, Carleen, Denaya, Rayden, Kaidence, Khloe, Kaylin, Ernie Jr., Kingsley, Evander, Alanis; chapans Brody, Broly; siblings Alfred Martin, Arlene Hooper, Joey Martin; Godchildren Monica Oskenekisses, Maddison Ettawakapow, Simone Sinclair; In-laws Louise Martin; many nieces, nephews, cousins, too numerous to mention.

Edith was predeceased by her parents Simon and Gladys Martin; husband Gordon Bloomfield; sisters and brothers Jemimah Easter (Larry), Isaac Martin, Angelic Captain (Presley), Margaret Flett (Morley), Walter Martin, Alice Ballantyne (Baptiste); sister-in-law Patsy Martin; brother-in-law Ken Hooper; grandchildren Adrian Richard, Roman Cruz; and many other relatives and friends too numerous to mention. If we forgot anyone it was not intentional.
