

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Yvonne Hamby was born on February 10, 1953, to the late Edward and Irene Tolbert in Louisville, KY. She gained her heavenly wings on September 10, 2025, at the age of 72, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and joy. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Patrice Marie Johnson; sister, Rolanda McClendon; and brother, Ronald Hamby.

She is survived by two beautiful and loving children, Russell (Tori) and Roxanne (Nashon); three grandchildren: Zora Yvonne Christina Johnson, Ferris Pierson, and Riley Isome; her bonus daughters, Denise Bax and Karen Joiner; her brother, Michael Hamby; four goddaughters: Lasaunya Wyche, Lintonia Stephens, Katrina Wyche, and Parish Ivery; one godson, Robert Joiner; and a host of family and friends.

Her smile would brighten any room, and she connected with everyone through her electrifying personality. She had the ability to make everyone feel special and loved. Her compassionate and loving heart led her to the healthcare profession. She enjoyed cooking, baking, and sewing. Her loved ones will always remember her with four endearing words: Family, Friends, Food, and Fun – demonstrating her love for life's simple pleasures and her kind spirit.

In honoring her spirit, we celebrate a fearless woman who loved hard, lived life to the fullest, and always made room for laughter. She will be deeply missed and never forgotten.
