

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

In Loving Memory of

Jeanette Stephens

April 14, 1940 - May 21, 2026

Obituary

Jeanette Stephens passed away peacefully on the morning of Thursday, May 21, 2026.

Jeanette Stephens was born in Sipsey, Alabama, in 1940 to Martha Mae Clark and Dilice Turner. She worked as a nursing assistant and retired from Twin Towers. She moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1973.

Ms. Stephens loved to travel, read books, shop, and work hard, always making sure her family was well cared for. She will be missed by her five children: Dennis Clark, Carrie Jones, Dilice Clark, Anthony Clark, and Willie Stephens, as well as her extended family and friends.

Although she was an only child, she had a best friend, Ms. Rose Tolbert, who was like a sister to her.

She not only raised her five children, but she also helped raise three of her granddaughters: LaQueena, Lakisha, and Latoya Howell. She leaves behind 28 grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, as well as many family members and friends who will cherish her memory.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."
