Memorial Programs lovingly prepared by Deb's Creative Services

Terry Wayne Costello was born on April 10, 1960 to Charles Lyndell and Hattie Mae Costello. He attended Wichita High School East where he met Rose Phillips. During this relationship his daughter Tacha was born. Years later Terry met and married Terri Jones. With this union, Terry's son, Martelli, was born. He loved his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. He was proud of them all.

He was a very hard worker, working multiple jobs, even owning his own janitorial service for a while. Until he found the one that gave him purpose... working in the kitchen as a kitchen supervisor at the Sedgwick County jail. Here he was able to talk with, encourage and give sound advice to some of the inmates. His co-workers loved him.

He enjoyed watching football, his favorite team was the Dallas Cowboys. In his spare time, he would go to the casino and would always win a few coins. Most of the time you would find him at work. You probably could say he was a workaholic. But the thing he enjoyed most was spending time talking and laughing with his siblings.

Terry was considered the cool laid-back uncle who was loved by all his nieces and nephews. His quiet laid-back presence will be deeply missed from all the family gatherings.

He was preceded in death by his father, Charles Lyndol Costello; his mother, Hattie Costello; and his brother, Charles Lynn Costello.

Terry leaves to cherish his memories: his daughter, Tacha (Kireece) Grant; his son, Martelli Costello; his sisters, Karen Costello and Delora (Tyrone) Costello-Childers; his brothers, B. Costello and Gregory Costello; his grandchildren, Kireece Grant, Jr., Tareek Grant, Tevis Grant, Kaliyah Costello, and Kaisen Costello; his great-grandchildren, Kaizen and Kaya Grant; and a host of nieces and nephews that loved him dearly.
