

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

A Life Remembered

Although our hearts are saddened by Maggie's passing, we find comfort in knowing that her love, wisdom, strength, and laughter will continue to live on through the family she cherished so deeply. Her legacy is one of resilience, compassion, hard work, and unwavering devotion.

Obituary

Maggie Mae, “Mag” or “Mun”, Powell of Covington, Kentucky, peacefully departed this life on Tuesday, July 28, 2026. She accepted Christ as her Savior at a young age.

She was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend whose love, strength, laughter, and witty sense of humor left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

Born August 1, 1942, in Charleston, Mississippi, Maggie was the beloved daughter of Prie Roberson and Mary Roberson. She was one of twelve children and attended Marks Elementary School and Quitman County High School.

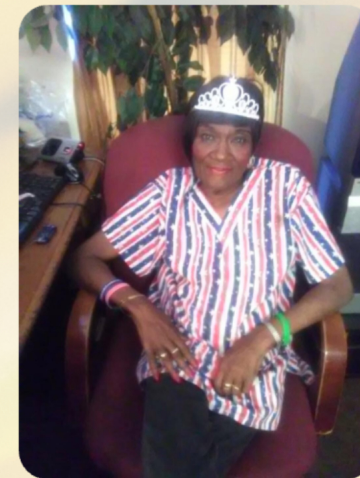

Maggie later married West Powell, Jr. and, in 1975, moved her family to Covington, Kentucky. She devoted herself to raising her children and remained a constant source of love, strength, and encouragement through life’s challenges.

Maggie was a hardworking and dependable woman who dedicated more than 29 years of service to Johnson Controls International in Florence, Kentucky. She took pride in her work and was known for her honesty, perseverance, determination, and strong work ethic.

She was known affectionately as “Ms. Mag” to family and friends and “Mun” to her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed fishing, playing bingo, phone games, classic movies, and old-school music. She had a quick wit and a playful sense of humor that could brighten even the toughest day. Her laughter and love brought family and friends together and created memories that will be cherished forever.

Maggie was preceded in death by her parents, Prie Roberson and Mary Roberson; her former husband, West Powell Jr.; her children, Danny Ray, Barbara “B”, James “Jay Jay”, Calvin Sr., Marvin “Mark” Powell; a great-great-grandson, Aaron Powell; and her siblings, Prie B. Roberson, Inez Jones, Y.C. Brown, Catherine Roberson, Willie Mac Roberson, and Will D. Roberson and Betty Roberson.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving children, Gloria “G” Powell of Cincinnati, Ohio, and West Powell III of Covington, Kentucky; her sisters, Bobbie Smith, Pauline Watson, Alice Roberson, and Florida Mae Roberson; grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family members, and dear friends.
