James "Jamie" Issac Day was born on December 12, 1974 to Johnny and Ella Day-Welsh. James was the youngest of his siblings and was truly loved as the youngest.

He attended Neshoba School District and graduated Class of 1994. He continued his education at East Central Community College and Northwest Oklahoma.

James love and dedication to football earned him the Dandy Dozen standout during his high school years which carried him on to be awarded athletic scholarships.

James loved music, family and friends, but his true love was for his children. He loved his kids more than anything.

James was employed at Peco's and enjoyed his workplace until his passing.

James departed this life on August 19,2025, at Neshoba General Hospital.

He was proceeded in death by his father Jonny Day and one sister Jaqualine Burnside.

James is survived by his mother Mrs. Ella (George) Welsh. His Children: one daughter; Ja'mia Day, three sons; Austin Elijah Day, Kendrick Day and Derrick Day all of Philadelphia, MS; three grandchildren; One sister: Flora Pickins of North Carolina; five Brothers: Authur (Patricia) Burnside of California, Mark (Vanessa) Burnside of Orlanda Florda, Jonathan Day of Philadelphia, MS, Hercheal (Marquetta) Jr. Talley of Hattiesburg Ms. and Herman (Adell) Talley of Orlando Fla.; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Son,

When I look outside, I'll miss your face,
 the gentle warmth, your steady grace.
 The way you laughed, so quick, so near,
 made every moment brighter here.
 I'll miss you rising, full of cheer, knowing my cooking would draw you near.
 Even simple things—your evening ways,
 washing clothes before the day.
 You never left without a word,
 "I love you" was the gift we heard.
 To me, to George, it was so clear, so true,

your heart was open, with love shining
 through.
 It's hard to think your breath is gone,
 yet in our hearts, you carry on.
 A final rest, a gentle peace,
 but Love like yours will never cease.
 So though I grieve, I'll hold you tight,
 in dreams, in dawn, in quiet night.
 James, forever loved, forever near,
 your voice, your joy—we'll always hear.

-Love Always, Your Mom

Brother,

James was so many things—a father, a son,
 a brother, and a friend. He loved his games of dominoes and cards, and if you sat with him long enough, you'd end up hearing one of his stories. He had a way of making even the smallest conversations memorable.

One thing about James—he could never let a conversation end without saying, "I Love you."
 And he meant it. He would give you his last, refuse a penny in return, and still smile just knowing you appreciated his help.

I'll never forget those days of you burning rags, calling it "mosquito repellent," and laughing about it like it was the best idea ever.

That was you—simple, genuine, full of life.

James, I know you sometimes felt unnoticed, like people didn't see how hard you worked or how much the little things mattered to you. But we did. We saw it. And we loved you more than you ever knew. I told you every chance I had... and I'll say it again now: I love you.

Your presence will always be missed, but your Love, laughter, and the way you lived
 will stay with me forever.

-Your Brother, John
