

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired,
a cure not meant to be.
So he put his arms around you and whispered "come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched you slowly fade away,
although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
your hard working hands put to rest.
God took you home to prove to us,
He only takes the best!

OBITUARY

Cherika Denise White was born on April 15, 1973 in Cincinnati, Ohio (Lincoln Heights) to Barbara Jean White and Leon Turner, both of whom preceded her in death.

Cherika graduated from Colerain High School, Class of 1992. During high school Cherika participated on the school Cheerleading team and studied to become a Dental Assistant. Until her health began to fail, she was a valued employee at The Children's Hospital Medical Center working as a Shift Leader for over 12 years.

Cherika was full of joy and excitement. She loved spending time with family and friends. She has left us with countless memories, and she impacted many lives.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory: a loving husband, Robert C. Allen, one son, Markeif White, one daughter, Cherkyria White; Grandmother, Susie White, step daughter, Roshedia Allen, two sisters, Lakeisha Wilson and Yolonda, sister-in-law Youlanda Allen, uncle, Perry White; two grandchildren, Javian and Jaiviana Allen; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and family.
