

We couldn't begin, To count the times
She tolerated our moods,
Consoled our heartbreaks & disappointments,
Endured our ups and downs,
LISTENED to words confused by tears
And just simply understood
For no other reason
Than because SHE LOVED US.

The years hold
Precious Memories,

But most of all they hold growth.
In a way, we grew up together...
Mom is our definition
Of a special person... Fantastic...
Exceptional... Unique... Enduring!
She filled our lives with HAPPINESS
And sweet feelings that we will Carry in our hearts forever

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be ALWAYS
at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
And the rains fall soft upon your fields,

*And until
we meet again,
May GOD hold you in the palm of His hand.*

Elk Crossing

In Loving Memory
CELEBRATING A LIFE

Florence "Wospi" Eagleman, a cherished educator and beloved family member, passed away peacefully in Poplar, Montana, on January 27, 2025. Born on June 12, 1936, in Poplar, she dedicated a significant portion of her life to the community, serving as a teacher's aid at Poplar Elementary School for many years. Her passion for education was evident in her work, and it broke her heart when she had to retire.

Florence had a multitude of interests and hobbies that reflected her vibrant spirit. She enjoyed spending time outdoors, hunting with her son Dennis and fishing with her partner Joe. An avid reader, she was especially fond of Westerns by Louis L'Amour and romance novels. Florence also had a unique talent for trivia, she frequently watched Jeopardy and could recall answers with remarkable accuracy. Additionally, she took great pleasure in attending pow wows, going on cruises with friends, playing cards in the morning while listening to the radio, and maintaining a close friendship with her neighbor Noreen over the years.

Florence is survived by her three loving daughters, Nadine Richards, Della Brown, and Joanne Browning. She also leaves behind her brother Michael Youngman Sr, her grandchildren Frank Red Eagle Jr of Poplar, Misty Florez of Billings and Jamie Bryan of Billings, Marcie Haines of Gilbert, Arizona, Laura Longee of Vancouver, Washington, Amanda Green of Gilbert, Arizona, Jasy Brown of Longview, Washington, Danelle Drags Wolf of Poplar and Ira Darnell Jr of Poplar, and her great-grandchildren, as well as four great-great-grandchildren.

She is predeceased by her parents, William Youngman Sr and Ruth Standing Bear, along with her siblings Lucy Youngman, William Youngman Sr, Josephine Youpee, Douglas Youngman, Christine Lizotte, Larry Youngman, Nettie Myrick, Rita Long Chase, and her beloved son Dennis Red Boy.

Florence will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her legacy of love, kindness, and intelligence will continue to inspire those whose lives she touched.
