I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

OBITUARY

Ms. Joyce Ann Brice, 1127 Calhoun Street, Rock Hill, South Carolina was born on March 1, 1965, in Rock Hill to John Henry Brice Sr. And Mary Patterson Brice.

She was a devoted mother, sister, aunt and friend whose strength, love, and dedication touched everyone who knew her.

She was proceeded in death by parents, John Henry and Mary and sisters Catherine Patterson and Cynthia D. Robinson.

Joyce was known as a hardworking and determined woman who took great pride in everything she did. She was truly a workaholic, always making sure her family was cared for and provided for. In her free time, she enjoyed reading her books, watching her favorite television shows, baking for her loved ones, and traveling. She especially cherished the moments she was able to relax and create memories with her family.

She worked at Britax for 27 years. She was a graduate of Northwestern High School class of 1983.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving children, Alexis Moore and Alisia Moore (D'Majah Williams) and bonus daughter K'Mya Sumter; her dear sisters, Rosie Hyman (Melvin), Carolyn Brice, Mattie C. Hunter and Tina Brice and brother, John Henry Brice Jr. and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

Joyce's love, strength, and beautiful spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.
