LIFE'S REFLECTIONS
Vanessa Bullock

IN THE BEGINNING ...

On Monday, November 14, 1966, Emma T. Jackson-Bullock and Louis Grady, II., welcomed their daughter Vanessa into this world.

DURING HER LIFE ...

Vanessa gave her life to Christ at a very early age and joined St. Peter M. B. Church under the guidance of Rev. E.C. Williams. She attended Yazoo City High School and graduated with the Class of 1984. Vanessa was employed with Yazoo City Municipal School District as a dedicated custodian, taking pride in her job, until her health began to fail and at that point she reluctantly resigned.

Vanessa believed in God and family. She was a force of nature- full of laughter, movement, and light. From the moment she entered a room, the energy shifted. Music seemed louder, stories grew funnier, and people felt more alive just being near her. She was the life of every event with her family and friends. On Wednesday, January 21, 2026, she was swept away into the arms of the Lord at her home. Though her passing leaves a silence that feels impossibly loud, her presence will always be felt- in shared jokes, favorite songs, spontaneous dances, and stories told with smiles through tears. Her legacy is one of warmth, connection, and living life out loud.

A TIME TO MOURN...

Vanessa leaves to cherish her many loving memories, her, daughter, Kimberly Bullock of Yazoo City, MS; son, Travis Bullock of Saginaw, MI; ten grandchildren: T'kyra Bullock, Terrin Jackson, Dequarius Ramsey, Dequarianna Ramsey, Devon Bullock, DeQuarion Bullock, Demarcus Bullock, Demir Bullock, DeAjah Ramsey, and Ja'Miya Moore; eight brothers, Wardell (Sandra)Bullock of Detroit, MI, Arthur Gene (Annie) Bullock of Belzoni, MS, Andre Bullock of Lynwood, CA, Roosevelt (Ann) Grady, Rufus Grady, and Marvin Grady of Yazoo City, MS, and Charles Grady of Haywood, CA, and Robert (Norma Jean) Collins, and; five sisters, Linda Wallace of St. Louis, MO, Dorothy Bullock and Lorrene Mack of Yazoo City, MS, and Essie Harris of Chicago, IL; and Priscilla Grady of Oaklawn, IL, three special bonus aunts: Thelma, Varonia McGee and Claudean Collins, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Louis Grady, II. and Emma T. Bullock; six sisters: Evelyn Bullock, Brenda Bullock- Boddy, Carolyn Bullock Casey, Dessa Grady, Leola Grady, and Mattie Grady; and one brother, Robert Earl Bullock.

TRIBUTES OF LOVE

Mama,

You left before I was ready to say goodbye. Before I got to ask more questions, share more milestones, say thank you enough. There's an emptiness now – a space only you could fill.

And yet, somehow, you're still here.

In the music you loved. In the lessons you taught.

In the way I laugh, love, carry on. I see glimpses of you in myself.

I wish we had more time – so much more. But I treasure the moments we had.

You filled them with warmth, wisdom, and fierce love. Your time may have been short, but your impact was vast.

You taught me to be kind, to be strong, to be myself. Even in absence, you guide me.

Even in grief, I feel grateful. I'll carry you in all the chapters you didn't get to see.

Forever loved. Forever missed. Taken too soon, but never truly gone.

Love Always and Forever,
Your Children- Kimberly and Travis

To Our Dear Sister

We were there for every first – every scraped knee, every family holiday, every inside joke.

You were the one who understood our upbringing without explanation.

The one who knew the songs, the stories, the chaos, the calm.

We didn't always agree, but we always circled back.

That's what siblings do. Especially ones like us – bonded by shared memory and rooted connection.

You were part of the rhythm of my days for so long that I still feel the echo.

Still reach for you in thought. Still smile at memories that only you would've laughed at with me.

Thank you – for the mischief, the comfort, the loyalty. You were one of the constants in my life.

And your absence has changed the shape of everything.

I will never forget the moments we had – or the quiet understanding we shared.

You were my sibling. You always will be.

Love Always,
Wardell, Gene, Linda, Andre, and Dorothy

Grandma,

You may have left this world, but your love still surrounds us.

Among angels now, may you find perfect peace.

Rest in peace, Grandma you'll always be in our prayers.

Love always and forever,
Your Grandchildren

We had a Wonderful Aunt

We had a wonderful aunt, one who never really grew old;

Her smile was made of sunshine, and her heart was solid gold;

Her eyes were as bright as shining stars, and in her cheeks fair roses you see.

We had a wonderful aunt, and that's the way it will always be.

But take heed, because she's still keeping an eye on all of us,

So let's make sure she will like what she sees.

We will miss you Aunt Nessa!

Much Love,
Your Nieces and Nephews
