

Sandra Kay Hubrig

Sandy was born on September 9, 1954, in Hankinson, North Dakota, she was the daughter of Luverne and Carol (Breden) Schmidt. She graduated from Hankinson High School, and soon after married Curt Hubrig on September 28, 1974. Together they moved to a farm in rural Great Bend, where they raised their two sons, Todd and Brad.

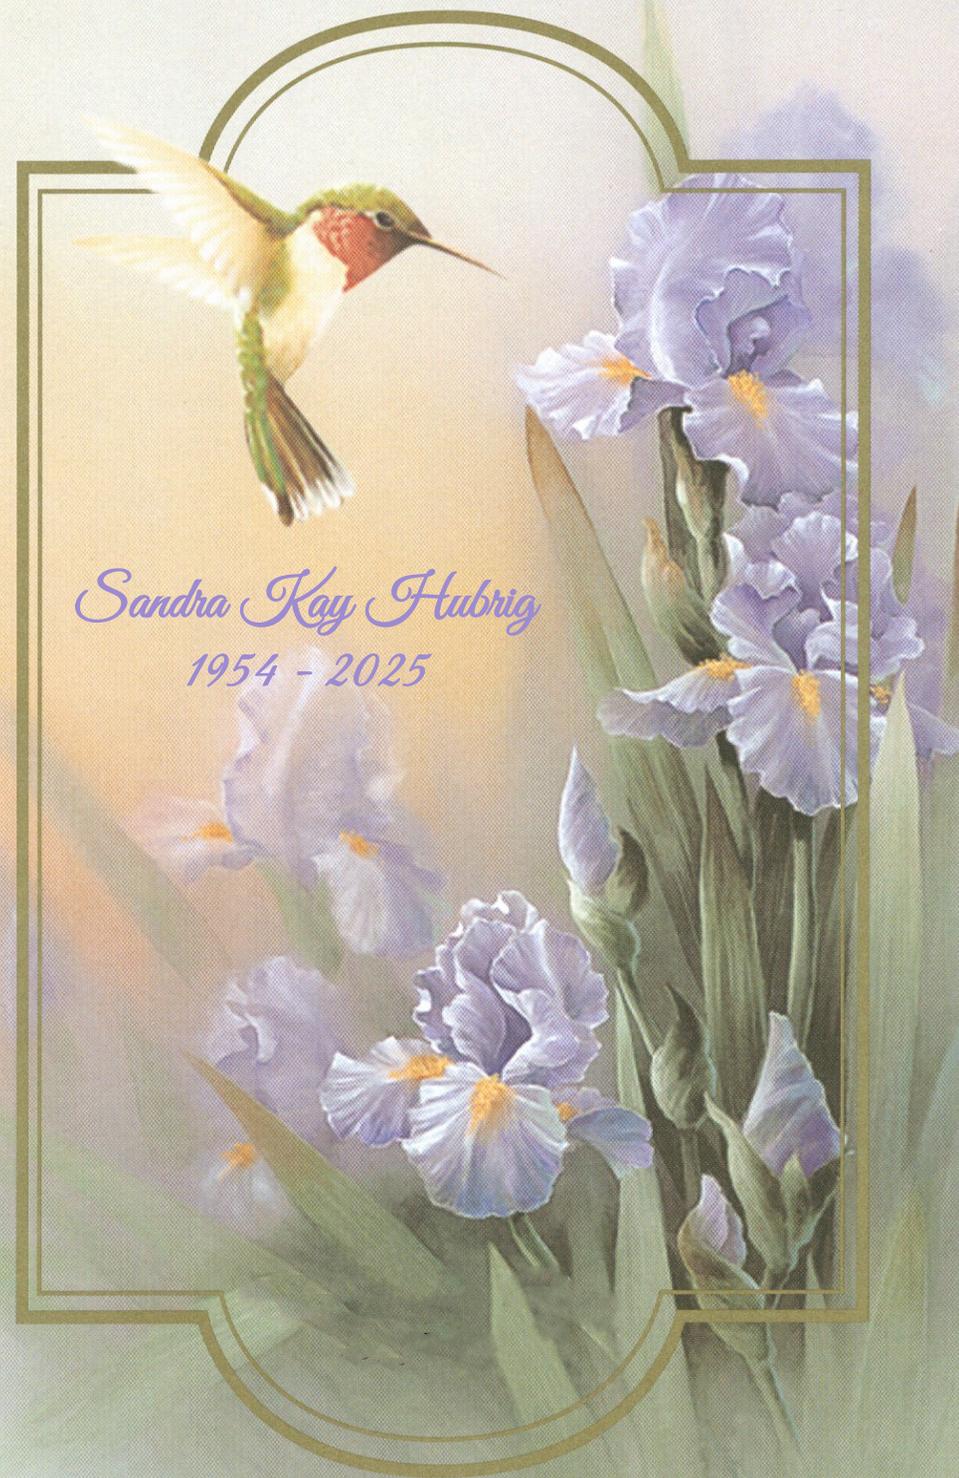

Sandy's devotion to her family was evident in everything she did, and she took immense pride in the time spent with her granddaughter, Harmony. Their visits were cherished moments that illuminated Sandy's life.

Throughout her life, Sandy exhibited a kind and gentle spirit, often seen sharing her smile and charm with everyone she encountered. She had a special love for her cats and dogs and found simple pleasures in gardening, and going to rummage sales. Sandy loved attending family gatherings and reunions at Jeff and Ruth's, always seen with her camera, eager to preserve memories with her loved ones.

Sandy is survived by husband of 50 plus years, Curt; sons, Todd (Rhonda); Brad, and his daughter, Harmony and her mother, Ashleigh Jorschumb; sisters, Susan Schultz and Nancy (Lynn) Hanson; brothers, Stanley (Pat) Schmidt, Larry (Janella) Schmidt, and Jeff (Ruth) Schmidt; sister-in-law, Barb Breden; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Luverne and Carol Schmidt; brother, Steven Breden; brother-in-law, Chuck Schultz; aunt and uncle, Si and Louise Ulrich; and many other relatives.

Sandy will be profoundly missed but lovingly remembered by all who were fortunate enough to know her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks undone must stay that way. I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared,
a laugh, a kiss, ah, yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me God wanted me now: He set me free
