He Will Call

*Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:*

(CHORUS)

*He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.*

*Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.*

(CHORUS)

*He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.*

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Her Journey

Nicole E. Hudson Hayes, 52 of Philadelphia, passed away on March 27th, 2025 in Philadelphia. Nicole was born to Joyce and Bobby Hudson on March 16th, 1972. She was affectionately known as Nikki.

Whether its family BBQs or going to amusement parks, she always enjoyed being around her family and friends.

She gave many years working as a aide at Ethan Allen where she was able to carry out her love for children before retiring.

Nicole was baptized on Spetmber 6, 1997. She married James Curtis Hayes and shortly after had her first child James, then years later her second child, Nickale.

Nicole was a mom, a sister, a daughter, and also a friend and we carry her in our hearts in different ways. So let's love, remember and cherish all the good times we've had.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
