

Only a Dad

Only a dad, with a tired face,
Coming home from the daily race,
Bringing little of gold or fame,
To show how well he has played the game,
But glad in his heart that his own rejoice
To see him come, and to hear his voice.

Only a dad, with a brood of four,
One of ten million men or more.
Plodding along in the daily strife,
Bearing the whips and the scorns of life,
With never a whimper of pain or hate,
For the sake of those who at home await.

Only a dad, neither rich nor proud,
Merely one of the surging crowd
Toiling, striving from day to day,
Facing whatever may come his way,
Silent, whenever the harsh condemn,
And bearing it all for the love of them.

Only a dad, but he gives his all
To smooth the way for his children small,
Doing, with courage stern and grim,
The deeds that his father did for him.
This is the line that for him I pen,
Only a dad, but the best of men.

Obituary

Randall Lee Mincy, Jr., son of the late Randall Lee Mincy and Emma Corrine Mincy, was born September 18, 1957, at William Beaumont Army Hospital in Fort Bliss, Texas. He attended the public schools of Lincoln Heights and then attended St. Simons School in Lincoln Heights. After the family moved in 1969, he attended Mt. Healthy High School. He graduated in 1975. After graduation, he attended the University of Cincinnati while also working at Sears. Like his father, his mathematical ability led him to study accounting. A family friend gave him a tip on a potential job at Zenith Logistics. It would be the second and last job that he would work. He retired from Zenith in 2019 after 43 years of service.

At an early age, Randall professed his faith in Jesus Christ and joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church under Reverend Otis Moss, Jr. At Mt. Zion Baptist Church, he participated in the youth choir, youth ushers and several youth activities.

Randall loved spending time with his cousins in Georgia and Florida. On one such occasion, his cousin Willie Joe introduced him to the love of his life. He was united in holy matrimony to Sharon Owens on April 14, of 1984. This union was blessed by two wonderful children: Rosalynd and Derek.

Randall Lee Mincy Sr. was a great cook. Like his namesake, Randall Jr. was an amateur chef. Family gatherings meant that that one question was always asked: Did Randall make gumbo? He spent far too many hours making sure his cuts of meat were smoked just right. He famously celebrated his birthday each year with a huge feast for family, friends and coworkers. He quietly departed this life Wednesday, August 21, 2025 at Mercy Fairfield Hospital in Fairfield, Ohio.

Randall's culinary skills extended to the second love of his life. His dog Rosy. He would often cook her eggs and steak. When visitors would come to the door, Randall would playfully call upon Rosy: "go get them Rosy."

His wonderful life will forever be cherished in the lives of his devoted wife Sharon. His children Rosalynd (Brian Brackens) and Derek (Rhaven Dunn). The gleam in his eye can be seen in his grandchildren Isaiah, Ebony and Carter. His loving mother, Emma Corrine Mincy. His sister Nadine Hudgins. His brother Emmerson Mincy. His nieces and nephews: Derrell, Alaina,, Kevin, Elizabeth, Randall Logan and Quinton. Great nephews and nieces: Dariyonna, Ava, Adrian, Austin, Jessiah, Azariyah, Matthias, Makayla, Demetrius, and Arabella. Family members Anna Mincy and Sarah Nesbitt.

Randall was preceded in death by his father, Randall Lee Mincy Sr.; his sister, Cynthia Henderson; and his brother Edwin Mincy.

Proverbs 4:1-5

Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding. For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law. For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

Ephesians 6:1-3

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. "Honor your father and mother"—which is the first commandment with a promise— "so that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth
