The Life of Yolanda Hudson

Yolanda, the daughter of Bishop Henry Lee Young and the early Evangelist Evelyn Young, was born on July 30, 1968 at the Mattie Hearse Hospital in Meridian, MS. She took her last breath on July 8, 2024.

She was born and raised in the Narrowway Pentacostal Church under Bishop W. M. Jimmerson where she sang in the choir under the leadership of her mother, Evangelist Evelyn Young.

Later, she moved her membership to Jerusalem Temple Church. She was a member of the Jubilee Choir and also on the usher board. She loved traveling and going to church events with her peers.

She was married to Robert Hudson and two children were born.

She absolutely loved her family, and family events. She was the family cook. Yolanda loved to celebrate holidays and she would never forget your birthday day and she wanted you to be celebrated. She was GREATLY spoiled by her father. Let's not forget, she loved to tell and say whatever comes to mind.

She went through many obstacles and trials with medical issues, but that didn't stop her from coming to church when she could. During this she gained special friends: Pam, Ms. Faye, and many others.

Yolanda leaves to cherish her wonderful memories, her father, Bishop Henry Lee (Leather) of Philadelphia, MS, her children, Tarra Lyons (Chris), and Xavier (Profilia) both of Philadelphia, MS, one sister: Latresia of Philadelphia, MS, her grandchildren: Jace, Korey, Xara, and bonus grandchildren: Juanita and Jon, 3 brothers: Mark (Tracy) of Philadelphia, MS, Timothy of Houston, TX, and Kevin of Philadelphia, MS, her nephews, nieces, great nephews, and great nieces, aunts, uncles, her special brothers, Kaski Moore and Brian Jones, and adopted nephew Jazjuan Scott. Her special friends, Tracie Cleveland, Tara Thiel and countless numbers of others, god daughters, Serenity and Niya Bradford.

Dedications

Mama, you were my best friend. We talked every day. If you didn't call, I was wondering why. If I didn't call you, you were calling me fussing asking what was my problem! Lol. I was not a perfect daughter, and we had our disagreements. I wish I could go back and change so much, but you always made sure to tell me that you appreciated me for all that I had done for you. Looking back, I've done no where near enough, and sometimes you made sure to tell me that too. lol.

Mama, I'm so sorry! I thought I had more time. I miss you so much. What am I going to do when I wake up every morning and not get a call from you saying, "Goodmorning! what yall doing? Where's my babies? What yall eating for breakfast?" We loved talking about food and what we both were cooking for dinner that night, Food was our passion.

You taught me so well. How to be a presentable woman, a great cook, and a woman that doesn't take mess from people. I will always remember all the words you said and advise you gave me. Until I meet you again my sweet butterfly. I love you so much.

Love,
Your daughter
