The Obituary

On Wednesday, July 9, 2025, Tammy Laverne Parson, 47, heard the voice of her Savior call her from labor to reward and she slipped away peacefully with her family by her side at FirstHealth Moore Regional Hospital in Pinehurst, NC.

Tammy was born December 15, 1977, in Chesterfield County, SC and was a daughter of the late Eddie William Parson and the late Sarah Linda Little Parson. She was educated in the public schools of Anson County and later went back to school to receive her GED (General Education Development).

For many years she worked in the poultry industry working with both Tyson Foods and Cobb Vantress, last working as an inspector.

Those who are left to cherish her memory are her daughters, Saretha Parson and Tamiya Parson both of Wadesboro; her granddaughter, Miracle Pason; her sisters, Jacqueline Dunlap and Edwina Thomas (Frank) both of Wadesboro; her nieces Katelyn Parson, Shantell Liles, Seara Liles, Iyania Thomas, and Imani Thomas and her great-nephews and great-niece, Ken'yon Lindsey, Syncere Ledbetter, and Skylar Parson; her aunts, uncles, and other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Mary Parson and by her nephew, Izzac Thomas.

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me—But Let me Go!

Acknowledgement

*A friendly smile
A casual touch,
These are the things
That mean so much,
To know you are with us
In our time of sorrow,
Sharing our prayer,
Today and tomorrow,
God gives us comfort
In the form of good friends,
May His peace be with you,
His love never ends.*
