

In loving memory of our sweet little boy.

With broken hearts, we share the passing of our precious son. Ryker Allen Heath was born October 20, 2023, to Mindy Cody and Ron Heath, both of Oklahoma City, OK. Ryker Allen Heath joined Jesus in Heaven on March 27, 2026, where we find comfort in knowing he is now running freely in the fields of glory, full of peace, joy, and endless light. Though his time here was far too short, the joy and love Ryker brought to our lives will last forever.

Ryker was always happy, with a bright smile that could light up any room and a laugh that brought happiness to everyone around him. Ryker loved dinosaurs and spent his days roaring, stomping, and exploring imaginary worlds filled with his favorite prehistoric friends. Monster trucks were another great love. He was happiest watching them race, crash, and roar just like he did.

More than anything, he loved being outside. Whether he was running, playing, or simply enjoying the sunshine, Ryker found pure joy in the world around him. Ryker's curiosity, energy, and sweet spirit made every day an adventure.

Ryker was deeply loved beyond measure and will be forever missed by his family, who will cherish every moment, every hug, and every memory. Though we can no longer hold him in our arms, we will hold Ryker in our hearts forever—our happy little boy, our dinosaur explorer, our monster truck champion.

Forever loved, forever missed, and forever our baby.

Ryker was welcomed into Heaven by his maternal Papa, Terry Cody of Mangum, OK; great-grandma, Blanche Flores of Mangum, OK; great-grandpa, Joe Flores of Granite, OK; paternal grandma, Gail McDowell of Oklahoma City, OK; and great-grandma, Reba Lentz of Aurora, MO.

Those left to honor his precious memories are Mommy, Mindy Cody and Daddy, Ron Heath both of Oklahoma City; Sissy, Haley Neugebauer and Brent Goff; Nephew, Bently Goff all of Oklahoma City, OK; brother, Ryse Neugebauer and Baby Sissy, Alivia Neugebauer of Frederick, OK; Nana and Poppy, Marlene and Mike Barron of Choctaw, OK and Papa Dennis McDowell of Oklahoma City. Tiny Footprints

There were tiny footprints in heaven today,
Where an angel got their wings.
A precious soul had arrived up there
Among such beautiful things.
The angels gathered all around,
And gently took his hand,
And led him through the golden gates
To a peaceful, promised land.
Though his time on earth was brief,
His memory will live on,
In every sunset, every star,
In every breaking dawn.
So when you see a butterfly
Or hear a robin sing,
Remember tiny footprints
And an angel with new wings.
