Obituary

Stephon L. James, 39, of Coatesville, PA, passed away on Thursday, June 20, 2024. Born on August 30, 1984, in Coatesville, he was the beloved son of Rose James and James Stevens. Stephon was a beacon of joy and laughter to all who knew him.

A proud alumnus of Coatesville Area Senior High School, Stephon graduated in 2002 and later attended and graduated from Lockhaven University in 2007. He went on to work at Marshalls, Devereaux and most recently found joy in his role at Panera Bread in Exton. Outside of his professional life, Stephon was an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan, often found cheering passionately during game days. He also loved to watch WWF wrestling. His love for sports extended beyond fandom; he actively participated in football and soccer during his earlier years and continued to cherish those memories.

Stephon loved music and was a member of the Coatesville Meistersingers while in high school. He loved to dance and was known for his humor;

Stephon was the family's comedian, always ready with a joke to lighten the mood. He cherished family gatherings and the time spent with friends, bringing joy and laughter to every occasion. Stephon will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who were fortunate enough to know him. His spirit will live on in the hearts of those he touched.

Stephon was preceded in death by uncle, Charles James; aunts, Maxine Williams and Jacquelyn Williams; and cousin, Michael Williams.

Stephon leaves cherished memories to his mother, Rose James; father, James Stevens; brother, Carlton Akers; aunts, Linda C. James, Patricia McClary (Jabbar); maternal grandmother, Rose Mays; godsons, Jaden Clinton,

Keepsakes of the Heart

*I thought of you today
but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday
And days before that too.
I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories
and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake
from which I'll never part,
God has you in his arms
I have you in my heart.*
