

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Daronica Rae Litman was born on September 20, 1980, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Darnette Baker and the late Dwight Litman. She was an only child on her mother's side and had a sister on her father's side. She left us too soon on May 4, 2022.

Daronica attended Rothenburg School when she was young and went on to complete her education online.

Daronica was a loving mother and loved to spend time with her children. There was never a time that she was not there for them. She also enjoyed throwing parties.

Daronica leaves to mourn her passing but also celebrate her life: six children: Melchizedek, Menelik, and Shashemane Billings, Kenyhla and Kenyanna Spears, and A'zaria Horton; her mother Danette Baker; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other loving family members: the Baker, Billings, Spears, and Horton families, and caring friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free; I took His hand when I heard Him call; I turned my back and left it all. If my parting has left a void; then fill it with remembered joy. My life's been full, I savored much; good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; ah yes, these things, I too, will miss. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up our hearts and share with me; God wanted me now, He set me free.
