

*“When we lose someone dear,
the challenge isn’t to learn to live without them but to learn to live with the love they left behind.”*

James (Jamie) Lamar Moore, age 49, of Columbus, Ohio, went home to be with the Lord on March 5, 2026. His passing has left a deep void in the hearts of his family, friends and all who knew and loved him.

James was born in Columbus, Ohio, to Mark Barnes and Glynnda Moore. He graduated from Columbus Alternative High School and earned an associate degree from Columbus State Community College.

He was a devoted son, loving father, and loyal friend who always found ways to make people laugh and feel welcome around him. James had a big heart and a personality that could light up any room. He loved people and he loved life.

Throughout his life, James worked in several roles and was known for his strong work ethic. He worked at Max & Erma's and Walmart, where he built friendships with many coworkers and customers over the years. James will be remembered for his humor, kindness, compassion, and the love he had for his family and friends.
