Asia Marie Tribble

June 18, 1989 – August 3, 2026

Born June 18, 1989, in Phoenixville, PA, she was the daughter of Angela Marie Tribble and George Whittier Blake, Jr.

Asia was a 2007 graduate of Coatesville Senior High School. She attended Delaware County Community College and Clark Atlanta University.

She worked as a Personal Banker at Wells Fargo Bank and for Habitat for Humanity, where she organized the volunteers to assist in building and repairing houses in the community. She completed Salesforce training, which landed her a job with Xfinity. She also completed a ServSafe certification, which launched her culinary journey, and she went on to work as a Culinary Service Supervisor before her illness. Her culinary skills were matched only by her love for fashion, always dressing with flair and elegance that reflected her lively personality.

Asia was baptized in 2019 at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Coatesville, PA. She attended Christian Faith Fellowship in Downingtown and Dare to Imagine Church in Philadelphia. Her faith, adventurous spirit and zest for life led her to travel extensively, embracing new experiences and cultures. Her journey to Zambia on a church mission trip was a testament to her generous heart and commitment to making a difference in the lives of others. Her positive attitude and ability to “hype you up” made her a beloved friend and confidante, always encouraging those around her to see the beauty in life.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Asia found joy in nurturing children working at various daycares, sharing her warmth and kindness with the youngest members of her community. Whether dancing, traveling, or spending time at the beach, Asia embraced life with boundless enthusiasm and gratitude.

She will be deeply missed by two sons, Amari P. Tribble, Amir M. Tribble; mother, Angela M. Tribble; stepfather Dwight Chambers; father, George W. Blake, Jr.; brothers, Camerous Williams of West Chester, Kendrick Chambers of Philadelphia, Mark Spencer of NJ; maternal great grandmother, Frances E. Tribble; Mum-Mum, Debbie Davis; aunts and uncles; Nakia Davis, Alisha McDougal, James Davis II, “Annie” Kim Miller, & her beloved Great-God Mother Anna McKim Freeman, and a host of other close cousins, family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents, George Blake Sr., James Davis Sr,
Beverly Blake, and Deacon
Anna McDougal, and Uncle
Michael Clary.

Asia's legacy is one of love, laughter, and unwavering positivity. Her beautiful smile and caring nature touched the lives of many, leaving behind cherished memories that will continue to inspire all who knew her.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
