

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special Thanks

We have received so many expressions of kindness, concern and love. Our hearts are warmed by all those who have ministered to us, comforted us and traveled far to be with us during this trying time. With deep gratitude we acknowledge all our family and friends who have shown us the Christian spirit of love and support. We pray God's blessing on each of you who share our sorrow.

REFLECTIONS OF LIFE

Dr. Kimberly Dixon-Lawson

Kimberly was the second born to Eddie J. Dixon, Sr. and Geraldine (Drake) Dixon, who both preceded her in death. She was a proud Mississippi native, with New Orleans roots. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized at Beulah Land Missionary Baptist Church in Yazoo City, MS.

Kim's educational journey began in Yazoo City where she matriculated from Head Start through Yazoo City High School. She transferred to Central Lafourche High School in Raceland, LA, where she completed her senior year and graduated with high honors in 1990.

A woman of intelligence, purpose, and determination, Kim continued her education at Jackson State University, earning both her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology and her Master of Science degree in Vocational Rehabilitation & Counseling. After relocating with her family to Dallas, Texas, she later earned her Doctoral degree in Public Health Administration from the University of Phoenix. Her academic path was the foundation of her career with the Department of Veterans Affairs, where she worked for over 20 years until her transition.

Professionally known as "Dr. Kim", she was nationally known as an expert in, vocational rehabilitation, education, mentorship, and service. She was a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor, Certified Rehabilitation Counselor and enjoyed being an online college instructor.

While her professional accomplishments were many, Kim's greatest pride was her family. She was a devoted wife to Jason Lawson and a loving mother to Andrea Dixon, Jada Lawson, Cameron Lawson, and Chloe Lawson. She had her own style of reality-based parenting with high expectations, humor and love.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Jason Lawson; her daughters, Andrea Dixon (Brian), Jada Lawson, Cameron Lawson, and Chloe Lawson; her grandchildren, Cheyenne, Brian Jr., and Reagan; her sister, Jennifer Elaine Smith (Henderson); her brother, Eddie Dixon Jr.; her sister in-laws, Janice Pleasant (Oliver) and Jerdine Johnson; her brother in-laws, Dennis Fountain (Helen), Robert Fountain, Frederick Fountain (Cindy), Willie Fountain (Mary) and Percy Simmons (Stephanie); her aunts, Gilda Hadley, Louise Townsey, Corintha Dixon, Sammie Lee Wiseman and Ella Mae Dyer; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends. Her life was a blessing. Her passion to serve and educate was a gift. Her grace, kind spirit and intellectual humor will remain forever in the hearts of everyone she touched.

"THOUGH YOUR JOURNEY ON EARTH HAS ENDED, YOUR LEGACY OF LOVE WILL LIVE ON FOREVER."

TRIBUTES OF LOVE

Rest On

Over 31 years of friendship. I was 19 years old when we first met. Then soon after, you became my "Baby Mama". You brought out the man in me. You never judged me and accepted me for who I was. You always told me never to care about what people thought about us. We promised to do this till death do us part, and we did! You left me with the girls, and all of them are mini-images of you. You will never be forgotten. Rest on my best friend, my love and my wife.

Love Jason

Five Hearts, One Bond

We weren't just cousins by family name,
We were five hearts, forever the same.
We laughed together, cried together,
Believing somehow we'd be together forever.
You were never just my cousin –
You were my sister, my friend, my safe place.
From childhood memories to grown-up dreams,
Your love filled every space.
We shared secrets no one else could know,
Inside jokes that made us smile.
Life may have taken us on different roads,
But our hearts were never separated by miles.
Now one chair sits empty,
One voice has become a memory,
Yet your love still echoes through our lives,
A beautiful part of our family story.
The five of us became four,
but our bond will always remain five.
Because love doesn't end with goodbye,
And your spirit will always be alive.
We'll carry you in every family gathering,
Every laugh, every tear, every embrace.
Until the day we're together again,
We'll see your smile in every familiar face.
Rest peacefully, beautiful soul.

Love Jennifer, Cassandra, Nikki and Deidra

We will See You Every Day

We can't touch you, we can't feel you,
we can't hear your voice, but we will still see you.
We see you in each other every day.
We see you in Dad, we see you in the little encouraging messages that you would leave.
We can hear your favorite songs on the radio that hasn't been played in years.
We can see the meals of yours we will still cook on Sundays.
We see your favorite color everywhere.
We see the places you'd like to visit, shows you'd like to watch, clothes you'd love to wear, your favorite smells,
and your favorite sounds.
We can see you in all the people you've touched.
We can't touch you, we can't feel you,
and we can't hear your voice.
But we always see you every day.
We will love you forever!

Your daughters,
Andrea, Jada, Cameron and Chloe

Sister

A light from my life has gone, a voice I loved is still
A place is vacant within my heart which never can be filled
A bouquet of beautiful memories sprayed with a million tears
I wish God could have spared you if just for a few more years
I hold you close within my heart and there you will remain
To walk with me throughout my life until we meet again.
So rest in peace dear loved one and thanks for all you've done
I pray the God has given you the crown you've truly won.
Your vacant place no one can fill
I miss you now and always will.
Your Loving Sister and Baby Brother, Jennifer and "Mane"
