"Grieve For Awhie, Then Let Go."

When I am gone, release me let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had these years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess.
How much you gave me in happiness.
Thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must.
But let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me,
I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear..
all of my love around you soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and
"Welcome Home."

We Love & Miss You!

"BEANA"

Wilma Jean PERRY

Jan 9, 1933 - Sept 23, 2026

"Her Story"

On January 9, 1933, a bouncing baby girl was born to Hugh and Elizabeth "Lizzie" Evans whose maiden name was Lizzie Wilson. The proud couple named their 9th of 9 children Wilma Jean. Born in the Lone Tree Community near Boynton, Oklahoma, Wilma who was affectionately called "Beana", attended school in Beggs and graduated from Wheatley High School in 1950.

After high school, she worked in retail in Tulsa, OK. She worked as a seamstress for Miss Elaine's Garment Factory for over 30 years until retiring at the age of 62. In her early years, Wilma joined Oakdale Church in The Lone Tree Community at an early age but late became a member of First Baptist Church South where she served faithfully for many years in the usher department, mission department, and food ministry. In her person time, she loved to sew, cook and was an EXCELLENT card and domino player.

Wilma loved her family, church and community. She served as a member and officer in T.B. Wiley Court #65 Heroines of Jericho and Order of the Eastern Star Golden Link #72. She was active on the Wheatley Alumni Reunion Committee from its inception in 1977 until 2019.

In 1997, Wilma reunited with a friend from many years ago, James Perry. James came from California to Beggs for a two week visit but returned to California engaged. On October 4, 1997, in Montclair, CA - Wilma and James were united in marriage. This marriage brought Wilma much joy and blessed her with children and grandchildren.

On September 23, 2026, Ms. Wilma Jean Perry Peacefully Took Her Rest in Tulsa, OK. Her siblings Felix, Walter, Pearl, Virginia lee, Katherine, Leo, Hazel, and Doretha, her parents, and husband James preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory daughters: Natasha (Steffon) Wallace, Aundrea Robinson, Samantha Browhaw, and Kew Naruenat; grandchildren Kimberly & Gregory Patterson, Jerome Davis, Steffan Wallace, Jr.; great-grandchildren: Gregory, Jr., Kimora, Tafari, Ezekiel, Journey, and Jerome, Jr., and host of nieces and nephews.

"When Tomorrow Starts Without Me"

When Tomorrow Starts Without me,
and I'm not there to see.
If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry for me
the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things
we didn't get to say.
I know much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me.
I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me.
Please try to understand,
That an Angel came and called my name
and took me by the hand.
And said my place was ready, in Heaven far above.
And that I've have to leave behind
all those I dearly loved.
But when I walked through Heaven's Gates.
I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me
from his great Golden Throne.
He said, "this is eternity, and all I promised you today for life on Earth has passed,
but here it starts anew."
I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last.
And since each day's the same way,
there's no longing for the past.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart.
For every time you think of me,
I'm right in your heart.
