LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. – II Corinthians 5:1

Mr. Eddie Lee Almo was born April 5, 1941, in Vaughan, MS. He was the fifth of seventeen children born to Mr. Thomas Almo and Geneva Almo, whom both preceded him in death. Three sisters and six brothers also preceded him in death.

He was a firm believer in Jesus and was baptized at Plainville Baptist Church as a young boy. He left Vaughan as a young man to start a new adventure in Illinois. In Chicago, he worked as a janitor, worked on cars and often played his harmonica and guitar for the crowd to enjoy. He loved life and his family especially his "fat baby", Liam. He transitioned to be with our Lord on June 3, 2023.

Eddie leaves to cherish his memories, four children: Beverly Young (Paul), Peggy Eddie Christopher Almo and Annie Turner; five brothers: Joseph (Geneva), James (Eddie Mae), Thomas Jr. (Ruth), John and Lee Andrew; three sisters: Mary Swan (Ace), Betsy Bradfield, and Lucille Hicks; five grandchildren: Natasha Grant (Marcus), Tamara Grant (James), William Young (Priscilla), Tiffany Butler (Jeffrey) and Joni Monique Almore; great grands: Asya, Troy, Myah, Kyra, Gabriella and Liam; and a host of family and friends.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
So, when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.*

WE LOVE YOU

*We thought of you today but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday and days before that too.
We think of you in silence. We often speak your name, now all we have are memories and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake with which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping we have you in our heart.*

Love Your Family
