Life Reflections

George Washington Maple, son of the late Thomas Pringle and Bernell Maple Jones Singleton was born on February 22, 1944 in Baltimore, MD. He transitioned from this earthly life to his eternal resting place on July 6, 2026 at Prisma Health Heart Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina.

George started his spiritual journey at an early age at Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church. He attended the public schools of Sumter County and began working at an early age. He worked in different industries both in and out of state before beginning his own business, Maple’s Construction and Septic Service. He was very proud of this accomplishment and worked hard to give his business a positive name throughout the community and surrounding areas. He was well known for the work he did and for the contributions he made in the community, giving gifts and other necessities to various community and nursing homes. He loved watching the news (any news); wrestling and westerns.

He was the patriarch of his family. A loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather and friend.

George was preceded in death by four brothers: Thomas Maple, Freddie Maple, Frank Jones and Melvin Jones; three sisters: Annie Mae Pringle, Shirley Jones and Valrie Fields; one son, Larry Dinkins.

He leaves to cherish his memories and carry on his legacy, his wife of 59 years, Virginia Singleton Maple; two children: Kimberly Maple of the home and Herschel Maple of Sumter, SC; three brothers: James (Dorothy) Maple, Gregory (Shelia) Jones and Roger Jones all of Sumter, SC; one sister, Dorothy Ann Jones of Sumter; four brothers-in-law: Henry (Lue Ella) Singleton, Robert (Diane) Singleton, Levan Singleton and Lawrence (Marcella) Singleton; six sisters-in-law: Mary Louise (James) Harvin, Celestine (Clarence) Sumpter, Patricia (Thomas) Cabbagestalk, Annie Lee Singleton, Debra Britton and Lorine (William) Robertson; two granddaughters: Miesha Maple and Saniyah Maple; his devoted caregiver, Georginia Gilbert; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.
