

She is Beautiful

She was born with purpose, strength, wisdom, beautiful and determination. She knew what her role in life was. She followed it throughout her life, leaving a mark on everything she touched. She brought joy, shared enthusiasm, warmed hearts, and above all "she will be ours forever."

Her sheer determination was exhibited in the way she left this life. She would not give up. She did not waver. She waited to let go until every little unfinished thing in her life was finished, and until everyone dear to her could say goodbye without grieving. Her constant example was emulated in the way she dealt with her life on earth. She would start a project, (sewing or otherwise) and would not put it down until it had met her expectation of completeness. She was proud but not boastful, bright but not blinding. She was beautiful but unaware. She was driven, but had no limits.

At this very moment she is smiling down on those she loves, knowing she has been a good and faithful servant, wife, mother, daughter, sister, friend and above all child of God, and as she smiles down on us today, her heart is full of peace, joy, and contentment.

She was a lady, she is a lady, and she will always be a lady. It is because of her, that so many other lives have been molded to carry on her message.

The message of pure love, the light of Christ, and spiritual strength.

She is here today, and always will be. All we have to do is - close our eyes and we will feel her sweet spirit, and be blessed with her powerful strength.
