

The Last DANCE

Our last dance I didn't know

Thank God I was aloud

Your smile your laughter

Oh the memories good or bad

But I'm glad they were had

You were not just my uncle but my father and protector too

Nobody had a better uncle then me

I will always love you Nicole

Oh! How I Miss My Dad
His smile could light up the room when he walked in Yeah that cool , OH how I missed my dad Darked skin with brown eyes beautiful like the sunrise,
OH how I miss my dad
His heart was bigger then the moon and he loved all his kids when they came out the womb,
OH how I miss my dad
Sharp dresser, he loved his trench coat, nice shoes with the hat to match driving in his Cadillac,
and there goes my dad
A great teacher jack of all trades , can advise you on anything down to lemonade.
We will always love you Willie James Marshall from the craddle to the grave

Terrell Marshall

DADDY

A man so strong, a son a father an uncle a grandfather

Carried the torch proudly for a long time.

Complexed with imperfection but stood mighty in time of need.

Heart of gold

Had strength of many men

Smile so bright

With over powering love if you knew him you were blessed

To have a father that stood tall through many adversities

Though his imperfections were vex
I'm still proud to call you my daddy

Love your only daughter Nicole!

JOURNEY OF LIFE

Willie James Marshall born May 10th, 1957 in Sumpter, S.C. to Henry James Marshall and Julia Mae (Canty) Marshall. He passed on October 15, 2025 in Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

As a child Willie relocated to Philly with his mother and sister. Jamesy his mother called him received his education in the Philadelphia school system where he graduated from Thomas Edison High-school in 1975. Willie first job was a Clothes presser in the neighborhood Cleaners. Also worked in a factory temporarily. Finding himself in life he attended Community College of Philadelphia for masonry. He then joined local union #57 Highway Division for some years were he was a construction worker and Forman on some jobs.

Willie was a member of Enon Baptist Church where he was responsible for transportation (driver) of the elderly to and from service. Willie past time he always enjoyed listening to music, singing, boxing, watching football, racing, fishing and even play baseball for Castle Night Bar. He enjoyed singing and dancing with his children. He loved to hangout with his coworker and friends.

Willie was sort of an Humanitarian when the city sanitary department went on strike he initiated the collection of trash on his block and the nearby blocks which then drew the attention of the city newspaper; and an article was published about him. He also would help anyone in need. He paid the rent for many of his neighbors who fell on hard times. He was a lone shark to those in need who could not find help from anywhere else. He had a giving heart and backbone many to family friends and neighbors.

Willie was proceeded in death by his mother Julia (1996), father Henry (2011) son's Corey (2000) and Akeem (1986) sister Deloris (2024) niece Shjuan (2021).

He leaves to cherish: Daughter Anika Marshall Jackson, sons James T Marshall and Jerrell C. Marshall. Grandchildren Shaherra, Ryan, Sakora, Kori -Aaliyah, Rayonna, Shayhrr and Malik. Great grandchildren: Armon, Azaryelle, Aiden, Allen, Amarea, Kyson and Sevyn. One niece: Nicole and a host of relatives and friends.
